HURRICANE HITS FLORIDA KEYS, MIAMI; HEADS FOR TAMPA BAY

135 - Mile - an - Hour Winds at Tavernier, Where Death Is Reported — High Tides Predicted.

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 10 (AP)—A tropical hurricane which left a trail of dead across the islands of the Atlantic claimed its first Florida victim today.

The body of an unidentified man was found at Tavernier, a small key south of Miami which was battered by the storm's sustained 135-mile-an-hour winds. The Highway Patrol had no specific information on how the man died but listed him as a storm casualty.

The hurricane has left a toll of 116 known dead in Puerto Rico and the Leeward Islands.

The hurricane, fourth tropical storm of the season, is known as Donna by the Weather Bureau, which lists storms alphabetically.

Heavy Miami Rains.

The storm swept past the Miami area today with heavy rains and wind gusts up to 97 miles an hour. It was headed northwestward toward the Tampa Bay area, second most populous in Florida.

At 9 a.m., Donna's center was 80 miles west of Miami and plowing slowly across the sparsely settled Everglades.

Florida's lower Gulf Coast already was getting a foretaste of Donna's fury. High winds broke telephone lines into Naples, a resort town 125 miles south of Tampa and 100 miles west of Miami, long before the center was due there.

Farther on in Donna's path lay Fort Myers, with 22,000 population, Sarasota with 33,000, Bradenton with 19,000, then the cities which face each other across Tampa Bay—Tampa with 270,000 persons and St. Petersburg with 178,000.

The Tampa Weather Bureau urged quick evacuation of low coastal sections of the entire area. It said the storm would pass close or just to the east of Tampa Bay early Sunday.

High storm tides, ranging from 5 to 11 feet, were forecast for the coast in Donna's path.

Warning Flags Up.

Hurricane warning flags flew along all of Florida's Gulf Coast north to Cedar Key, 85 miles upcoast from Tampa.

The Tamiami trail, highway crossing the Everglades from Miami to Naples and Fort Myers, was blocked when Donna felled numerous large pine trees across the roadway. Detours around these obstacles are impossible in the marshy glades.

Winds up to 120 miles an hour were reported by radio from Everglades City, on the coast below Naples.

The Miami Weather Bureau reported that there were some known casualties in the Florida Keys, but a Red Cross official said reports of casualties at Tavernier were "grossly misrepresented."

Water Line Broken.

The Florida Keys were raked last night and today by winds and tides which washed out bridge approaches, broke the main water line to Key West, piled seaweed three feet high across the Overseas Highway, scattered trailers at a tourist camp for half a mile, and ripped the roof from a school building being used as a refuge.

Relief missions were headed

W. G. MARBURY NAMED MO. PAC. BOARD CHAIRMAN

Office Recreated for Head of Mississippi River Fuel Directors.

William G. Marbury, chairman of the board of Mississippi River Fuel Corp., was elected chairman of the board of Missouri Pacific Railroad yesterday.

The Missouri Pacific directors recreated the office of chairman and unanimously named Marbury to that position. In recent years, Missouri Pacific has not had a board chairman.

Marbury has denied reports that Mississippi River Fuel is seeking to gain control of Missouri Pacific through its stock purchases.

The gas pipeline firm purchased an additional 11,500 shares of the Class A common stock of the railroad in July, a report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission showed. At the end of that month, the pipeline company held 381,700 shares, or about 20 per cent of the outstanding shares of voting stock of the railroad.

Directors suggested at the meeting yesterday that Marbury be elected chairman of the board to ease the executive burdens of Russell L. Dearmont, president of Missouri Pacific, the Post-Dispatch was told.

Dearmont had "a slight heart attack recently," it was reported at the meeting. He was stricken when vacationing in Canada.

Dearmont is "materially improved after four days in the Missouri Pacific Hospital and is expected to be up shortly and home in a week or so," a physician reported.

Asked at Missouri Pacific's annual stockholders meeting in May whether Mississippi River Fuel was seeking control of the railroad, Marbury replied: "It isn't in our mind, and it has not been discussed."

At that meeting, Dearmont quoted officers of Mississippi River Fuel as saying they "do not want control of the railroad."

Dearmont added that apparently Mississippi River Fuel regards Missouri Pacific stock as a good investment. "They have confidence in the territory served by Missouri Pacific and believe in the ability of the railroad to operate successfully," Dearmont said.

Marbury answered a stockholder's question from the floor by saying that Mississippi River Fuel had bought its stock in the railroad "to make money. It's that simple."

Both companies serve the same territory and that territory is undergoing great economic development, Marbury said.

PRESIDENT GETS STUFFED POODLE AT COUNTY FAIR

GETTYSBURG, PA., Sept. 10 (AP)—President Eisenhower took in a county fair yesterday and got in some political licks.

It was a winning day all around for Mr. Eisenhower. He won at golf. And despite poor aim with a baseball, he won a pink and white stuffed poodle at the South Mountain Fair in Arendtsville.

At the fair he shook hands with or patted Republicans ranging in age from 93 years to 3 months.

As he walked by a concession which gives prizes for accuracy in knocking over bottles with baseballs, an attendant handed him three baseballs.

Mr. Eisenhower threw three times, knocking over one bottle. The attendant handed him a pink and white stuffed poodle.

"What would I win if I knocked over one bottle?" someone asked.

BRIDE-TO-BE SAVES BABY, THEN IS KILLED BY CAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (UPI)—A 21-year-old bride-to-be was killed by an auto yesterday after she saved the life of a baby by pushing the infant's carriage out of the car's path.

Theresa Bonano, 21 years old, Massapequa, N.Y., was pushing the carriage of the 14-month-old daughter of her fiance's sister-in-law when the accident occurred, police said.

Officers said Miss Bonano saw a car driven by Richard Hanes bearing down on her and pushed the carriage out of the way before she was hit.

The infant, Theresa Graziano, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Graziano, suffered minor injuries when the carriage overturned, hospital authorities said.

Miss Bonano planned to be married next June.

LIGHTNING, FIRE DESTROY 20 OIL TANKS AT REFINERY

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10 (AP)—Lightning struck a fuel tank last night and started a fire that destroyed 19 other big tanks at Gulf Oil Corporation's 200-acre refinery at Philadelphia.

Several hundred firemen tried to prevent the flames from spreading but over a five-hour period each tank became a part of the inferno.

There were no injuries. It was estimated that several hundred thousand gallons of fuel were destroyed.

As the fire spread to each of the tanks, 20 feet apart, there was an explosion. The flames would heat the oil in the tanks and the pressure developed would blow off the tops.

Seattle Earthquake.

SEATTLE, Sept. 10 (UPI)—An earthquake jolted Seattle at 7:10 a.m. today. There were no immediate reports of damage.

New Postmaster Has No Post; His Old Letter Office Is Dead

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10 (AP)—The confirmation of John A. Schultz as a postmaster of a post office that does not exist was "a regrettable error," the Post Office said yesterday.

Peter Wade, assistant organization management officer of the Philadelphia regional office of the Post Office Department, said Schultz's name should have been withdrawn.

"And even though he was confirmed, no action is needed to void it. There just isn't any such post office," Wade said.

Schultz was acting postmaster of nearby Neshaminy from 1958 until the office was combined with the Warrington township office last April and his $4990 salary was stopped.

Last Tuesday, however, he received congratulatory messages from Senator Joseph S. Clark (Dem.), Pennsylvania, and Representative Willard S. Curtin (Rep.) Pennsylvania, the National Association of Postmasters and the National League of Postmasters about his confirmation by the Senate Sept. 1 as Neshaminy postmaster.

FILLING STATION MAN AND ROBBER EXCHANGE SHOTS

Attendant Fires as Two Flee Following Hold-up and One of Pair Fires Back.

Joe Moore, attendant at a filling station at 4610 Page boulevard, and an armed robber exchanged pistol shots early today after Moore was robbed of $25. The shots apparently went wild.

Two men drove into the station at 4 a.m. and the driver asked Moore to check the radiator of the automobile. When the attendant started the check, the other man got out of the car and held Moore up at pistol point. After taking the money the robbers started to drive away. Moore drew a pistol and fired a shot at the car. The armed man returned the fire as the car sped away.

Isadore Zimmerman, operator of a drugstore at 4642 Shenandoah avenue, was robbed of an undetermined sum last night by two men, one of whom was armed with a sawed-off shotgun.

After the robbers stole the contents of a cash register and Zimmerman's wallet, they were interrupted by the arrival of a customer and fled through a rear door. Police found a shotgun, loaded, in a yard adjacent to the store.

Mrs. Ethel Bridges, barmaid in a tavern at 926 Piggott avenue, East St. Louis, was knocked unconscious last night with a revolver by a holdup man who fled with an undetermined amount of money and three bottles of whisky. Mrs. Bridges said she was closing the place following the departure of the last customer when the robber entered and held her up. After knocking her down the robber fled. Mrs. Bridges was treated at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis, for scalp wounds.

William McMurtrey was robbed of $180 last night by an armed man in McMurtrey's camera shop, 1113 State street, East St. Louis. The robber fled on foot.

A man carrying clothing bearing cleaning tags was arrested early today at Hodiamont and Easton avenues by two policemen who discovered that the clothing had been stolen from a cleaning shop at 5507 Ridge avenue. The suspect, who was booked as Robert Shelton Jr. of the 5200 block of Theodosia avenue, said he found the clothing.

Matthew Kulengoski, a repairman for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., reported that a 20-foot extension ladder, which he left against a wall when making an emergency repair last night at 2421 Coleman street, was stolen as he went to his truck for tools. The ladder was valued at $40.

EGYPTIAN HURT IN BLAST OF CONSULATE IN BEIRUT

Explosion Shatters Some Windows in U.A.R. Building.

BEIRUT, Sept. 10 (AP)—An explosion shattered the waiting room of the United Arab Republic consulate in Lebanon's capital today. One person was injured.

The blast, apparently caused by a small bomb, blew out some windows of the consulate. Witnesses said an Egyptian who was in the consulate on private business was hurt.

Police and security officers immediately put a guard around the building and ordered all persons into the courtyard held for questioning.

HAMMARSKJOLD URGES U.N. STOP SOVIET, BELGIAN INTERFERENCE

Abuse in Technical Aid and Arming of Katanga Force Assailed by Secretary in Coun- Debate.

By DONALD GRANT
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 10 — The United Nations should demand a monopoly of all forms of assistance to The Congo, thus eliminating intervention by the Soviet Union and Belgium in that strife-worn new nation, Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold told the Security Council at a meeting which extended into the early hours of this morning.

Hammarskjold did not name Russia directly. "Technical assistance," he declared, however, "has in The Congo, indeed, come to take on a new significance. I have already referred to Belgian assistance in the Katanga. But the Belgians are not alone. There are others who follow a similar line."

The Security Council, he declared, must request that all assistance be channeled through the U.N. "and only through the United Nations." Such an action, the Secretary General said, would "solve the problem of military assistance to the Katanga, and it would also solve the problem of abuse of technical assistance."

U.N. Must Remain.

The United Nations, Hammarskjold said, must continue operations in The Congo "irrespective of how the authorities in The Congo operate and how the domestic situation develops." This is true, he said, "because of the great risks which exist for the spreading of The Congo crisis over Africa."

He demanded better co-operation by Congo government authorities, however.

Hammarskjold also voiced a warning to the government of Guinea, whose troops serving with the U.N. forces in The Congo were reported of a mood to pull out of the U.N. force.

"Were a national contingent to leave the U.N. force," he said, "they would have to be regarded as foreign troops introduced into The Congo, and the Security Council would have to consider their continued presence in The Congo, as well as its consequences for the U.N. operation, in this light."

Opposition to Russia.

Hammarskjold found himself in seemingly serious opposition to the Soviet Union in the new U.N. consideration of The Congo crisis. Soviet attacks on the Secretary General appeared to take a form which could lead to a demand for the resignation of Hammarskjold, but diplomats cautioned that such a conclusion would be premature. In the past, such attacks have been followed by Russian support of the Secretary General on critical issues.

Russia's action in backing — or finally opposing — Hammarskjold in the present situation may be known later today when the Security Council is scheduled to resume deliberations. The secretary general is seeking council action on four questions.

These are: Increased financial support for The Congo operation, council action urging the Congolese to solve their internal problems, action to eliminate outside interference, and —tentatively—some authorization to disarm unruly Congolese troops.

Two Forms of Attacks.

The Russian attacks on Hammarskjold took two forms. The Soviet Union issued an official statement which backed the demands of Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba. That statement included the charge that "The United Nations secretary general failed to display a minimum of impartiality which the present situation demanded of him."

Taken at face value this would seem to indicate a total loss of confidence by Russia in Hammarskjold's political neutrality, a situation which could lead to the secretary general's resignation.

In the Security Council itself, however, the Soviet deputy foreign minister, Vasily Kuznetsov, confined himself at the opening session to an unsuccessful attempt to move the council session from U.N. headquarters here to Leopoldville, as demanded by Lumumba. This move was defeated, 6 to 3. Poland and Ceylon voted with the Soviet Union. Ecuador and Tunisia abstained. The United States, Britain, France, Argentina, Nation-

CONGOLESE ARMY ORDERS ITS TROOPS TO CEASE FIRE THROUGHOUT THE NATION

U.N. ANNOUNCES EDICT; OBEDIENCE WOULD PREVENT KATANGA DRIVE

Lumumba Press Chief Says, However, That There Is No Basis for Report in Leopoldville.

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo, Sept. 10 (AP)—The United Nations announced today that the Congolese army has issued cease-fire orders to its troops throughout The Congo. This order, if obeyed, would stop the bloody warfare in Kasai province and end Patrice Lumumba's planned invasion of rebellious Katanga province.

The announcement came a few hours after Premier Lumumba demanded that the United Nations stop Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and his aids from what he called their interference in The Congo's internal affairs.

(United Press International quoted Lumumba's press secretary, Serge Michel, as denying the cease-fire report. "There's nothing to it," Michel said. The conflicting statements raised the question of whether Lumumba actually approved of the cease-fire. It also raised the question of who actually controls the Congolese army.)

Lumumba, whose position as premier is in dispute, told reporters there was danger of a world war starting in The Congo. He said he wanted to avoid this turn of events, although he has accepted Russian planes and trucks to prosecute his war against political rivals in The Congo. He criticized Hammarskjold on several counts.

Supervision at Border.

A U.N. spokesman said a truce supervision operation will be installed tomorrow on the borders between Katanga province and the provinces of Kasai and Kivu. It is not believed any large-scale fighting has started along these borders yet.

The spokesman said steps are being taken to insure that the cease-fire is observed on all sides. It was assumed that similar orders were being issued in Katanga.

Still fighting for his political life against the followers of President Joseph Kasavubu, Lumumba complained at a press conference about Hammarskjold's statement in New York last night that the presidential decree firing the premier —since declared void by parliament—was legal under The Congo's constitution.

"It is not up to the secretary general to interpret the fundamental law," Lumumba said.

Charges Provocation.

Disregarding the facts of a civil war that has already claimed hundreds of lives, he accused Hammarskjold of "trying to provoke an internal war in The Congo to impose a U.N. trusteeship."

He protested again about U.N. seizure of Congo airports and the Leopoldville radio and objected to Hammarskjold's proposal to disarm the ill-disciplined, 20,000-man Congolese army.

The United Nations had blocked the airports and seized the radio to stop troop transport for the Kasai civil war and to halt broadcasting of inflammatory statements.

Lumumba announced he has written to Hammarskjold and to U.N. members a call for intervention of "all nations."

"This is a solemn and pathetic appeal to all nations to intervene to prevent The Congo from becoming a battlefield of World War III," Lumumba said.

Lumumba urged other African nations to announce "whether they are for the people of The Congo." This was seen here as an effort to split the U.N. Congo contingents, already torn by conflicting loyalties.

The Guinean mission announced yesterday it had asked President Sekou Toure to withdraw the 750-man Guinea battalion. Today a Guinean official told newsmen "our troops no longer are under U.N. command."

Informants close to Kasavubu said he is going ahead with his announced plan to form a new government headed by the Senate's moderate president, Joseph Ileo, despite parliamentary rejection of the presidential decree declaring Lumumba fired.

KHRUSHCHEV MUST REMAIN IN MANHATTAN

U.S. Requests That Premier Reside as Near as Possible to U.N. Headquarters.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—The United States notified the Soviet Union today that Premier Khrushchev during his visit to New York must not travel off Manhattan Island.

In a memorandum to the Soviet U.N. delegation, the United States requested that arrangements be made for the Soviet leader to reside as near as possible to U.N. headquarters and to limit his movements to those required by his official mission as head of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations.

United States sources said similar restrictions were being placed on Hungarian Communist party chief Janos Kadar and Mehmet Shehu, premier of Albania.

The United States memorandum said the restrictions were being imposed in order to provide adequate security for the Communist leaders.

Restriction to Manhattan Island would mean Khrushchev would be unable to use the Soviet Union's mansion at Glen Cove, Long Island.

GALES IN PATH OF SOVIET SHIP

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Soviet liner Baltika, with Premier Khrushchev aboard, passed through the straits between Sweden and Denmark early today escorted by two Russian destroyers.

The 7500-ton white liner and the two gray destroyers passed the narrowest part of the Oersund at Haelsingborg.

NASSER, TITO COMING TO U.S. FOR U.N. SESSION

United Arab President and Yugoslav Executive to Attend Assembly Meeting.

CAIRO, Sept. 10 (UPI)—President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic will attend the United Nations General Assembly session starting in New York Sept. 20, it was announced today.

It will be Nasser's first visit to a Western country.

Tito to Lead Yugoslavia's Delegation to Meeting.

BELGRADE, Sept. 10 (UPI)—President Josip (Tito) Broz of Yugoslavia will lead his country's delegation to the United Nations General Assembly this month, the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug announced today.

The visit would be the first to the United States by the 68-year-old Tito.

SCOTSMEN MISS THE KILT

LONDON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Antony Armstrong-Jones, Princess Margaret's husband, shocked Scotsmen yesterday when he appeared at the Royal Highland Games at Braemar wearing trousers. He should have worn the kilt.

Scotsmen, sensitive about sartorial etiquette at their national athletic and dancing contests, pointed out that even Prince Philip wears the kilt when he attends the games.

New Tokyo Disk Jockey.

TOKYO, Sept. 10 (UPI)—Laura (Mimi) MacArthur, daughter of Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II, will become a disk jockey in Tokyo Monday. She will be heard on the radio program "Midnight Junction" Monday through Friday for the next month.

RELIGIOUS ISSUE GROWING TO ONE WHICH KENNEDY CANNOT AVOID

Aids Troubled Over Stand to Take — He Agrees to Questioning by Houston Ministerial Group.

By MARQUIS W. CHILDS
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

© 1960 St. Louis Post-Dispatch

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 10—The religious issue threatened today to become a major question in the presidential campaign despite the determination of Senator John F. Kennedy to avoid becoming entangled in a debate on the subject.

As raised by the Rev. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale and 150 other Protestant ministers in their new organization called the National Conference of Citizens for Religious Freedom, the question of the eligibility of a Roman Catholic to be President was put up to the Democratic candidate yesterday.

"I would not attempt to reply to Dr. Peale or to anyone who questions my loyalty to the United States," Kennedy replied.

But there can be no doubt that his aids are deeply troubled. The question was the subject of day-long discussions on the Kennedy campaign train as it moved to Bakersfield and on a short flight to Los Angeles where the Senator spoke on civil rights last night in the Shrine Auditorium.

To Appear Before Ministers.

He has accepted an invitation from the Greater Ministerial Association of Houston, Tex., to appear before its monthly meeting Monday night, it was announced today. He will speak briefly and then answer questions which are expected to go into the relationship between church and state as to Catholicism and the coming election.

This is an added appearance on the Kennedy Texas schedule, which already is crowded. He flies to St. Louis Tuesday afternoon for an appearance early Wednesday before the convention of the International Machinists' Union.

Some of the Kennedy strategists have been urging him to make a direct reply in a major address in Texas. His own inclination has been not to discuss the issue unless it was raised by others.

Speech Overshadowed.

His press conference replies to reporters at the Burbank airport on his arrival overshadowed his speech at the Los Angeles rally. The Kennedy staff had been studying the statements made following the formation in Washington by Dr. Peale, the Rev. Dr. Daniel Poling and others of the organization which is aimed at raising the question of religion and the presidency.

"I am delighted to respond to those who want to ask what my position is, but for those who are not interested in my position and prefer to state it for themselves, it really is very difficult to state it and give any answer which would satisfy them," Kennedy said.

Kennedy was asked whether it was correct that "you believe Dr. Peale has questioned your loyalty?"

"I would think he has questioned my ability to fulfill my constitutional oath because he states that I am unable to fulfill it because my church will place pressure on me to which I would succumb," Kennedy said.

Denies Pressure.

"I don't accept the view that my church would place pressure on me. I don't think there is any evidence of that in the United States.

"The Constitution is very clear on the separation of church and state. I have been very clear and precise in my commitments to that Constitution and not merely because I take an oath which is taken to God but also because I believe it represents the happiest arrangement for a free society.

"I believe in the theory strongly—just as strongly as Dr. Peale or anyone else. I don't know what I can do other than state that as my conviction, as my record, and state that is the philosophy which would guide me in the presidency.

"Beyond that it becomes a question whether in 1960 we are going to carry out the Constitution, which says there shall be no religious test for office, or whether we are going to decide that because I was born a Catholic and live a Catholic for some reason I am unfit to hold office."

The Democratic presidential candidate said he realized that in countries such as England and the Scandinavian nations and in others where Catholics were in a majority the state and the church had a common identity. But there is separation in the United States, he said.

"The Lutherans believe in separation of the state and the church. So do the Catholics and the Jews and the Episcopalians. We have been able to work this out in our society.

"But why should something be raised when I run for the presidency. That's what I cannot understand. It was not raised when I ran for the House and the Senate. I know the presidency has great influence. But why should I be questioned in my running for President of the United States?"

Earlier in the day at a whistle stop at Modesto a man in the crowd shouted, "Do you believe all Protestants are heretics?" Kennedy replied, "No, and I hope you don't believe all Catholics are."

End to Discrimination.

In his speech last night Kennedy said the next President must be prepared to put an end to racial and religious discrimination in every field of federal activity. He must do this, the candidate said, by issuing the "long-delayed executive order putting an end to racial discrimination in federally assisted housing," by revitalizing the Vice President's committee on Government contracts and by making sure that "no American is barred from the highest positions in government because of the color of his skin."

Except for a breakfast of party workers this morning, Kennedy is resting over the weekend. He is staying with his sister, Pat, and her husband, the movie actor, Peter Lawford. In response to a question as to why he was not going to San Diego for a previously arranged rally today, Kennedy said that he needed the rest.

Despite rival attractions, notably the Rams-49ers football game in the Coliseum and Ringling Brothers Circus, the auditorium seating 6700 was filled to overflowing with hundreds of standees waiting outside. The prolonged cheering with the chant "We want Jack" and the applause and cheers that frequently interrupted his speech appeared to inspire the candidate. He put extra fervor into his appeal for support in the election and in the drive to move America forward.

At the start his hoarseness reflected the strain of the day's six whistle-stop appearances ending with a brief talk at the airport at Bakersfield. But as he warmed up he seemed more relaxed and his voice improved.

The rally had the typical Los Angeles flourish with movie stars Frank Sinatra, Gene Kelly, Janet Leigh and others performing before Kennedy's appearance. Sinatra is a close friend of the Peter Lawfords and he worked for Kennedy in the primaries.

Air Defenses Tested 6 Hours Against Mock Nuclear Attack

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 10 (UPI)—The continent's entire air defense complex—far-flung radar, a coast-to-coast electronic brain, supersonic jet interceptors and scores of anti-aircraft rocket units—went into action early today to repulse a simulated all-out nuclear attack on the United States and Canada by hundreds of faster-than-sound bombers.

The skies over 14,000,000 miles of the United States and Canada were cleared of commercial and private aircraft for exercise "Sky Shield."

Strategic Air Command bombers struck at major population centers, industrial targets and military bases—but only with electronic "bombs."

Manned interceptors, closing with the bombers at more than a 1000 miles an hour, held fire when the enemy was sighted on radar scopes. Nike and Bomarc crews only went through the motions of launching rockets against the attackers.

In all other respects, the North American Air Defense Command began at 2 a.m. A realistic test of its capacity to win a war of survival. The test continued for six hours.

Although hundreds of planes were in the skies NORAD reported there were no acceidents or unexpected incidents.

SAC bombers assaulted scores of targets from maximum altitudes and at tree-top height, trying to elude the interceptors and to slip under the radar screen.

At NORAD headquarters, in Colorado Springs, a comprehensive picture of the massive attack was drawn at high speed on giant plate glass maps. Seconds after a fleet of bombers was detected and its destination calculated, fighter-interceptor squadrons were ordered aloft.

From radar "Texas Towers" in the oceans and from radar stations along the coasts and across the Arctic flashed information about approaching attackers to $100,000,000 SAGE combat centers. / IBM computers larger than box cars evaluated the radar sightings, and flashed the over-all picture to NORAD headquarters.

SAGE stands for "semi-automatic ground environment"—an electronic system for handling combat data which cost billions, but which saves minutes in situations when seconds become incalculably valuable.

Computers told the NORAD group of men could reason, what planes and rockets were available, and which could most swiftly reach the attackers.

But computers could not answer the fundamental question posed by sky shield. Does NORAD have enough planes and ground-to-air missiles to stop a full-scale nuclear bomber attack? Can they be brought into action quickly enough?

And, if our air defenses are not adequate, how should they be employed? Which cities should be saved, and which sacrificed? In short, who should live, and who should die?

The Royal Canadian Air Force is represented on the NORAD staff, and the R.C.A.F. sent nine CF-100 interceptor squadrons into the continental defense exercise.

Commercial airlines canceled, delayed, or completed ahead of schedule about 1100 flights. Private air traffic—which normally amounts to 700 flights during the six hours reserved for Sky Shield—also was grounded.

Even trans-Atlantic commercial traffic was affected. British Overseas Airways alone rescheduled three flights to New York, one to Chicago, one to Montreal, and one cross-country flight bound ultimately for Hong Kong.

Private pilots were warned by the federal aviation agency that "the air space won't be a healthy place" between 2 a.m. and 8 a.m.

CORONER STILL PUZZLED OVER EX-MODEL'S DEATH

CHICAGO, Sept. 10 (AP)—Medical investigators remained baffled today by the death of a former model whose body bore mysterious marks.

Mrs. Patricia Corcoran, 32 years old, mother of two children, was found unconscious Wednesday in her room in a hotel in Evanston. She died in a hospital without regaining consciousness.

Cook County Coroner Walter McCarron said yesterday that pathologists, in a preliminary report, said certain marks on the woman's head were not caused by beating. Dr. Harold Wagner, acting coroner's pathologist, said the marks on the woman's head, forehead and eye appeared to be burns.

Charles W. Corcoran, estranged husband of the former model, was released after questioning by police.

VIRGINIA STATES' RIGHTERS PICK PRESIDENTIAL SLATE

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 10 (UPI)—The Virginia committee for constitutional government, rebuffed by Senator Harry F. Byrd, (Dem.), Virginia, and Senator Barry Goldwater, (Rep.), Arizona, picked two Virginians yesterday as its candidates for president and vice president.

The states' rights group named its chairman, V. Benton Coiner of Waynesboro, as its presidential candidate. Edward M. Silverman of Blackstone was named vice presidential candidate.

REDS REBUFFED IN COUNCIL VOTE ON OAS CENSURE

Wadsworth, Kuznetsov Clash—Russia Drops Proposal to OK Condemnation.

By ALVIN H. GOLDSTEIN
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 10—After prolonged discussion the United Nations Security Council voted 9 to 0 late yesterday "to take note" of action by the Organization of American States condemning the government of the Dominican Republic and imposing certain sanctions against that country.

The vote in the 11-member council, with Russia and Poland abstaining, amounted to a rebuff of arguments by the two Communist countries in favor of a Soviet resolution asking the council to approve the OAS decision. The Russian resolution later was withdrawn.

The Soviet resolution was an attempt to bring the action of the regional organization under the control of the Security Council, where Russia and four other permanent members exercise the right of veto. Had it been successful, Russia would have gained a voice in Latin American affairs.

San Jose Action.

The OAS, in its action at San Jose, Costa Rica, Aug. 20, charged the Dominican regime with plotting the overthrow of the Venezuelan government and the assassination of President Romulo Betancourt.

Moscow contended that regional authorities had no right to enforce punitive measures without the approval of the council. The opposition, led by the United States, argued that such regional organizations as the OAS were directed to settle their disputes internally without recourse to violence.

Those favoring the measure finally adopted by the council agreed that the imposition of sanctions such as those against the Trujillo regime in the Dominican republic—chiefly directed at ending diplomatic relations and restricting trade—did not constitute enforcement in the spirit of the U.N. Charter.

Most of the afternoon session was devoted to an exchange between James J. Wadsworth, chief of the United States mission, and Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister. Each said the other representative's nation sought to intrude in Latin American matters for ulterior reasons.

Wadsworth noted that the American representatives at the OAS conference had "denounced Soviet ambitions to intervene in Latin America." The same sentiments applied here, he added.

Hungary Crushed.

It would be amusing, if it were not so ominous, to see the Soviet Union defending the Charter here, he remarked. After all, the Soviet Union had "invoked the military regional organization of Communist Eastern Europe, the Warsaw Pact, to justify its brutal repression of the Hungarian revolution."

On that occasion, Wadsworth continued, the Soviet Union had not sought Security Council authorization but had defied the United Nations and contemptuously ignored the United Nations' repeated condemnations and demands for the withdrawal of Soviet troops.

Wadsworth said such a country had little standing in "seeking to distort the Charter for its own ends." He charged that the Soviet Union was seeking a veto over the operation of the inter-American system. He called this malicious meddling and said it would not be successful.

RED BORDER POLICE SLOW TRUCK TRAFFIC TO BERLIN

Make Drivers Unload Cargo for Inspection Despite Allied Retaliation Warning.

BERLIN, Sept. 10 (UPI)—Communist border police began slowing down West German truck traffic on the highway from Hamburg to Berlin today. They made some truck drivers unload their cargo for inspection.

The new harassment started despite a direct Allied warning to the Soviet Union and word that the West was planning retaliation against the Communist moves.

(Diplomatic sources in London said the West was imposing counter-restrictions on East Germans wishing to travel to the West. The cources said no new travel documents had been issued to East Germans as of today).

Border guards justified their slowdown inspections with the charge that the trucks were smuggling propaganda material into West Berlin.

Western officials said the border guards carried out minute inspections and fined drivers if there was the slightest deviation from their cargo documents.

Berlin's Big Three Allied commandants last night demanded the lifting of Communist restrictions on West Germans entering East Berlin and charged the bar violated four-power agreements.

Although a rejection was considered almost certain, the United States, Britain and France warned Maj. Gen. N. F. Zaharov, Berlin's Soviet commandant, that they were ready to defend their occupation rights here.

There was no immediate answer to the protest, delivered personally by Gen. Jean Lacomme, French commandant, who is chairman of the Western Allied Command this month.

However, East German Foreign Minister Lothar Bolz gave an indication of what the Russians would do when he issued a statement declaring the four-power agreements on Berlin null and void.

Bolz questioned the basic rights of the West in the city by asserting that the four-power agreements on Berlin were as dead as the now-defunct Allied control authority that made them.

A strategy meeting in Bonn of Big Three and German diplomats sent to Washington, London and Paris for approval "a whole series of measures" to be taken in retaliation.

Under consideration as a proposal that all members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization embargo trade shipments to or through East Germany.

were met by a moderate western wind as Khrushchev began his voyage to New York for the United Nations General Assembly. Rough water ahead was predicted.

London meteorlogical offices said gales lie in the ship's path to the North Atlantic, once it leaves the sheltered Baltic.

Khrushchev is accompanied by a party of top Red leaders, including Janos Kadar of Hungary, Todor Zhivkov of Bulgaria and Georghe Gheorghiu-Dej of Romania. A Red summit conference at sea was forecast by some diplomatic observers.

A Washington dispatch disclosed that Khrushchev had rejected a new demand that Russia free two United States airmen held after the downing of an RB-47 plane.

American Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson made the demand Thursday in a Moscow meeting with the Soviet leader. The State Department said the results of the talks were not encouraging.

Still held after their plane was downed over the Barents sea on July 1 are Capt. Freeman Olmstead and Capt. John R. McKone.

AMERICAN AID PLAN RUNS INTO SNAG AT BOGOTA

Some Nations Reported Seeking to Modify Social Development Fund Purposes.

BOGOTA, Sept. 10 (AP)—Final drafting of a United States-backed plan to pour $500,000,000 into Latin America's economy struck a snag today that may delay the windup of the inter-American economic conference.

Informed sources said some of the 21 nations taking part in the parley want the plan to spell out some of the purposes for which the social development fund can be used.

A nine-nation working group which worked for three hours last night with the final draft of the "Act of Bogota" was to make another attempt today to put it into shape.

Informants said discussions hinged mainly on proposals by Brazil's Augusto Frederico Schmidt to write additional clauses into the $500,000,000 social development fund plan—keystone of the act.

Schmidt reportedly wants the resolution to specify that the new fund can be used for health as well as other purposes. He already had succeeded in having the draft say the fund could be used to help build farm-to-market roads needed in some parts of Brazil.

Other delegations were reported to be asking that the plan be tailored to suit their individual needs.

Another problem before the conference was how to resolve the resolution on basic products. Colombia has asked for the establishment of committees of producers and consumers which would study the question. It contends that consumer countries have the responsibility of helping to stabilize prices.

The United States, which has been friendly to the idea of individual study of price problems, has asked time to study the resolution. There were indications it would prefer that the Colombian proposal be modified in some respects.

MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM FOR MISSOURI WINS UNANIMOUS OK

Representatives of 47 Groups Indorse Long-Range Plan — Committees to Be Appointed.

By ROY J. HARRIS
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 10—A proposed 10-year mental health program for Missouri was indorsed unanimously yesterday by representatives of 47 organizations attending the state's first Mental Health Conference.

A resolution calling for creation of five citizens's committees to promote public acceptance of the program, and its adoption by the Legislature, was approved by the 150 persons at the concluding session of the two-day meeting, which had been called by Gov. James T. Blair.

The committees, to be appointed by former State Senator Francis Smith of St. Joseph, chairman of the State Mental Health Commission, will have specific tasks of seeking grass-roots support of the program, studying ways and means of obtaining the necessary revenue and advising the commission on refinement of legislative proposals to be submitted to the General Assembly.

Committees Planned.

Smith said he would announce membership of the committees next week.

The resolution was drafted by Mrs. William D. Bowie, president of the Mental Health Association of St. Louis. It was submitted after persons at the conference attended workshop sessions in which the program, calling for additional mental health expenditures of at least $8,500,000 in the next two years, was described in detail by staff members of the State Division of Mental Health.

The program, drafted under direction of Dr. Addison M. Duval, division director, calls for staff expansion at the state's schools and hospitals, rehabilitation of buildings and establishment of state-assisted community mental health centers.

Of particular interest to members of the conference, in addition to the question of how the additional funds will be raised, was the proposal for community centers.

Centers, whose functions would include diagnosis, early treatment and screening of patients before their admissions to state hospitals, would be set up in cities and counties, or groups of counties, having a population of 50,000 or more.

The state would share operational cost with local communities on a 50-50 basis. Under the program, $600,000 was set tentatively as the state's allocations in the 1961-63 biennium.

Dr. Duval said the centers would fill a vital need and save the state much money on a long-range basis by providing early treatment of mental illness and thus reducing the population of the state hospitals.

As part of the community service program, the state also would provide 50-50 matching funds for operation of psychiatric in-patient services at general hospitals throughout the state.

In addition, the state would provide similar financial assistance for psychiatric in-patient services at general hospitals throughout the state.

JOINED TWINS REPORTED TO BE IN POOR CONDITION

The twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Degenhardt were in poor condition today at St. Louis Children's Hospital. The girls, born on Thursday, are joined from their chests to their navels.

No surgery to separate the twins is planned at present, a hospital spokesman said. The infants were brought to Children's Hospital yesterday from a hospital in Du Quoin where they were born.

Mr. and Mrs. Degenhardt, who have no other children, live at 327 Hartman street, Collinsville.

AUGUST CRIME RATE UP 10.2% OVER 1959

Major crimes reported in St. Louis increased 10.2 per cent last month, compared with August 1959, Chief of Police Curtis Brostron announced today. Crimes against persons decreased, and solutions rose.

Five categories of crime decreased in the two-month comparison, Bronston said, but the number of burglaries and larcenies committed last month offset this. There were 940 burglaries and 375 larcenies over $50 last month, compared with 786 and 308 in August last year.

The number of murders fell from 11 to 8, forcible rape from 34 to 25, robbery from 160 to 155, aggravated assault from 251 to 249 and auto thefts from 341 to 332.

Crime solutions rose from 534 in August 1959 to 583 last month, the overall solution rate rising from 28 per cent to 28.2 per cent in the two-month comparison.

"Although August is the fifth month in 1960 to show an increase in crimes over the comparable month of 1959," Chief Brostron said, "the overall crime picture for 1960 is still somewhat better than for last year.

"A total of 15,208 crimes were reported in the first eight months of 1960. This compares with 15,351 reported for the same period last year."

Police solved 5215 crimes in the first eight months this year. Last year in the first eight months they solved 4521. The rate of solutions this year was 34.3 per cent, compared with 29.5 per cent last year.

Brostron said crimes against persons accounted for 21.1 per cent of all crimes in St. Louis this year. Crimes against property accounted for 78.9 per cent.

WOMAN ABOUT TO TAKE TRIP SHOT ACCIDENTALLY

Mrs. Eileen Johnston, 3934A Blaine avenue, suffered a gunshot wound of the abdomen yesterday when a .22-caliber revolver was accidentally discharged in her home.

Mrs. Johnston was being assisted by a friend, Mrs. Betty Glidden, 3137A Magnolia avenue, in packing for a trip Mrs. Johnston planned to take. In removing some clothing from a drawer which contained also the revolver, Mrs. Johnston handed the weapon to Mrs. Glidden. As she did so the weapon discharged.

Taken to City Hospital, the 25-year-old housewife was reported in serious condition.

PROMOTE U.S. TO MEET SOVIET THREAT, CURTIS ASKS

Americans must understand their own economic system of free enterprise and promote its philosophy in order to meet the Russian threat, Representative Thomas B. Curtis (Rep.) of Webster Groves, said last night.

Curtis, who spoke before the Grace Episcopal Church Young Adults Group at 514 East Argonne drive, Kirkwood, said Americans also must have a true picture of the Russian economy. Russia is weak, he said, in transportation, communications and housing.

Russia's achievements have been built beyond their true perspective by propaganda, Curtis said, but Americans should not dismiss the entire Russian threat picture as propaganda. This would result in false complacency. Curtis is the ranking Republican member of the Senate-House Joint Economic Committee, which conducted extensive hearings on the Soviet economy. He is seeking re-election to congress.

JOBLESS INSURANCE CLAIMS STILL AHEAD OF LAST YEAR

Intitial claims for unemployment insurance in St. Louis and St. Louis county for the week ended yesterday totaled 3986, compared with last week's total of 5283, Charles G. DeLargy, metropolitan manager of the Missouri Division of Employment Security, announced.

"Claims for unemployment insurance in the city and county continued relatively high as a result of short duration layoffs for model changes in the automotive industry," DeLargy said. Initial claims for the comparable week of 1959 were only 2294.

Included in the week's total of initial claims, DeLargy pointed out, are 1743 automobile workers. Model change layoffs have tended to come earlier this year than in 1959. Continued claims this week totaled 13,353, which is 843 less than last week's total and 2540 above the comparable week of last year.

SPECIAL COUNTY, CITY REGISTRATION

Residents of St. Louis and St. Louis county who have failed to register to vote were urged yesterday to take advantage of special registration facilities which will be provided next Friday in most voting precincts in the area.

Mayor Raymond R. Tucker and County Supervisor James H. J. McNary issued joint proclamations yesterday designating next Friday as a general registration day. The Boards of Election Commissioners will accept registrations at 600 polling places in the city and at 375 in the county.

The proclamation ceremony at the Mayor's office was attended by representatives of political committees of both city and county and by representatives of civic, labor and women's organizations which have been active in efforts to get prospective voters registered.

Chairman Michael L. Galli of the St. Louis Election Board estimated that 200,000 persons otherwise eligible to vote are not registered in the city.

INJURED IN ESCAPING FIRE

Harold Williams, 3101A Fair avenue, suffered a serious head injury early today when he jumped or fell from his second-floor flat in trying to escape a fire which had started in the kitchen. Firemen found him unconscious on the sidewalk below an open window. He was taken to Homer G. Phillips Hospital.

Williams evidently was alone in the house. The fire, which apparently started in the electric refrigerator, was put out after causing damage estimated at $300.

MSD TO DECIDE ON NEW TALKS WITH STRIKERS

Officials Will Discuss Union Secretary's Offer to Set Up Weekend Meeting.

Metropolitan Sewer District officials were to decide today whether to resume talks with representatives of striking laborers and truck drivers.

The strike, which started yesterday, forced the district to abandon its regular program of cleaning inlets, manholes, creeks and ditches. Peter F. Mattei, executive director of the district, said emergency service would be maintained.

Joseph L. Ames, secretary-treasurer of Local 410, Institutional and Public Employes Union, which represents the strikers, offered late yesterday to meet with the district civil service commission to resolve the dispute. Ames said he is willing to meet this weekend, if desired.

Discussion Planned.

Mattei said he would discuss the matter with Joseph R. Wolf, personnel director for the district.

"We will look the situation over very carefully," he said. "We want to acknowledge Mr. Ames's letter (in which Ames said he would be available for talks) and possibly make some recommendation."

Mattei said two of the three members of the civil service commission were out of town and would not return until next Thursday. Talks with the union could be resumed with the remaining member of the commission, he said.

Ames said he hopes the strike will be settled before Monday morning. A long strike, he said, "could result in serious inconvenience to the public."

While anxious to meet with district officials, Ames said, "we must point out that any settlement will be dependent on the willingness of the civil service commission to alter their viewpoint on some of our requests."

Points in Dispute.

Major points in dispute are union requests for payroll deduction of union dues and payment of laborers on a biweekly, instead of an hourly, basis.

Ames said picketing would continue at the district headquarters, 2000 Hampton avenue, and would be stepped up in the event the strike continues next week.

Many members of other unions have not observed the picket lines thus far. About 135 laborers and truck drivers are represented by the striking Local 410.

FBI SEIZES ONE OF MOST WANTED FUGITIVES HERE

Edwin Garrison, Who Fled Alabama Prison, Was Working as Bookkeeper.

Edwin Sanford Garrison, who had been one of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's 10 most wanted fugitives, was in City Jail today following his arrest by FBI agents here yesterday.

Garrison, 60 years old, had been at liberty since he escaped from an Alabama prison Aug. 23, 1958, and had been working as a bookkeeper near Eureka. He was serving a life sentence for robbery when he broke out of prison.

The FBI put Garrison on the "most wanted" list in March 1959, and finally traced him to St. Louis. Agents kept one of Garrison's friends under constant surveillance here and were finally led to the fugitive's apartment at 7039 Nottingham avenue.

No resistance was offered by Garrison, a mild-mannered man, when the agents confronted him at the apartment yesterday. He had been described as being "as dangerous as a rattlesnake."

Glad It's Over.

"I won't give you boys any trouble," Garrison said. "I guess the hunt for me is over."

In the trip to the Federal Building, Garrison remarked: "I'm glad it's over with. I know the FBI. You can't fool the FBI very long."

As the group passed a bulletin board in the Federal Building, Garrison noticed his photograph on a poster of wanted fugitives.

"You can take my picture down," he said, smiling.

Garrison had been on the "most wanted" list previously. In 1953, he and 10 other convicts escaped from the Atmore State Prison Farm at Atmore, Ala. FBI agents captured him eight days later in Detroit.

The talkative Garrison said he had been moving around the country since he learned the FBI was seeking him. He traveled by bus, he said, catching them at points between regular terminals. In St. Louis he had been making a living making out income tax returns and handling bookkeeping chores for various businesses.

Garrison has been convicted of robbery, burglary, larceny and murder. The murder conviction followed his arrest at Newport, Ky., in February 1936. He and two other men were charged with setting fire to a roadhouse. A 5-year-old girl died in the fire.

Garrison was arraigned before United States Commissioner Irwin H. Gamble on a charge of unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement for robbery.

CAPPING CEREMONIES HELD FOR 105 AT BARNES HOSPITAL

Capping ceremonies for 105 young women who have been accepted for training at the Barnes Hospital School of Nursing were held last night in the Washington University School of Medicine auditorium.

The class, which includes students from seven states, was welcomed by Miss Ann J. Campbell, director of nursing service and nursing education. Other speakers at the ceremony were Dr. Frank R. Bradley, director of the hospital; Glynn E. Clark, member of the School of Nursing advisory committee, and Miss Patricia Heinecke, president of the Student Nurses' Association.

Miss Elizabeth C. McIntosh, associate director of education, presented the students for capping in a candlelight ceremony. The class is the largest accepted by the school.

PASSENGER INJURED WHEN AUTO IS FORCED OFF ROAD

Joseph Andreuska, 17 years old, 4915 Forest boulevard, Washington Park, suffered a chest injury today when an automobile in which he was riding overturned after being forced off the road in the 5800 block of Bunkum road, Washington Park. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis.

The driver, Melvin Aubuchon, 18, suffered a cut above the left eye. Aubuchon, who lives at 5500 Avon place, Washington Park, told police he was driving west on Bunkum when another car crowded him. The other car did not stop.

DUCK HUNTER SHOOTS PILOT

MOSCOW, Sept. 10 (UPI)—A Russian duck hunter took a pot-shot at a low flying airplane and hit the pilot in the leg, a Soviet newspaper reported.

The plane had to make a forced landing. The hunter, identified as M. Agayev, was sentenced to eight years in jail for hunting ducks out of season.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLING FIRM OF $20,347

Mrs. Clara M. Nolte Is Charged in Warrant With Theft From Her Employer.

Mrs. Clara M. Nolte was accused yesterday of embezzling $20,347 from a Webster Groves construction firm where she worked as manager and bookkeeper.

Mrs. Nolte, 54 years old, of 1731 Del Norte avenue, Richmond Heights, has admitted taking the money in the last two and one-half years, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Daniel O'Brien of St. Louis county said.

She obtained the money, O'Brien said, by increasing the amounts written on checks signed by her employer, Robert R. Wright, a contractor. For example, Mrs. Nolte would place a 1 before the $60 amount on her weekly paycheck, O'Brien said, thus increasing her pay by $100.

None of the money has been recovered.

Discrepancies in the construction company records were found in an audit made last month, shortly after Mrs. Nolte quit her job. She had worked for the Wright firm, which has an office at 111 West Lockwood avenue, Webster Groves, since 1952.

Mrs. Nolte was arrested in August during the investigation and released on an appearance bond returnable next Wednesday in the court of Magistrate Leslie T. Lewis at Clayton. Lewis issued a warrant yesterday charging her with stealing over $50. The warrant will be served when Mrs. Nolte appears in court, O'Brien said.

O'Brien said Mrs. Nolte told him her husband, Robert F. Nolte, did not know she was taking the money.

In a signed statement, Mrs. Nolte told of adding amounts up to $400 on checks written by Wright. Wright usually wrote an amount on each check before signing it. Mrs. Nolte then would increase the figure and the altered amount would be stamped on the check when it was passed through a check-writing machine.

Alterations were made on checks for supplies which were made out to Mrs. Nolte, as well as payroll checks.

The School Frats' Side

It is time for a sorority member to state our side of this issue of disbanding sororities and fraternities.

It is of no concern of the St. Louis Board of Education what clubs we students belong to outside of school. Our fraternal organizations in no way hinder the teaching of classes or the running of the schools. Neither do we claim to have any affiliation with the schools, although in almost all the sororities the members do attend the same high schools.

Mr. Hickey and the board called the fraternities and sororities undemocratic because of the blackballing system used. Most of the sororities and fraternities are pretty fair about blackballing. Besides, so many of the students are not in fraternal organizations that none feel as completely unwanted as the board would have it seem.

It was a shame that one irresponsible sorority could not control its dance, thus making us all look bad. Most of the other sororities are able to keep drinking to a minimum by having chaperones and bouncers and requesting the owner of the hall or room not to serve set-ups. The drinking for the most part is done by students from other schools and older boys and girls.

If the board would sincerely like to break up the fraternal groups they should take over the main function of the groups—dances.

At our high school we have two dances and one after-school hop. At county schools there are approximately two dances a month.

The result? No need for sororities and fraternities. We have properly chaperoned dances with no drinking.

If we could have more dances at school, that could last longer than they do now, the students would forget the fraternal dances. Many parents would be happier, too.

But, unfortunately this is not done, so the sororities are blamed.

Sorority and fraternity members should be allowed to wear their pins to school without interference from the school officials.

The board does have the right to stop any activities that directly interfere with school rules; but in trying to stop outside fraternal groups and the wearing of their symbols, the board is going beyond proper limits.

Sorority Member

The committee of school officials which investigated the Omega Sigma sorority dance Aug. 25 may be correct in its findings, but should not apply them to sororities in general.

Beta Chapter of Kappa Alpha Phi, when inviting girls to join, recognizes the fact that most high schools are divided into various social classes. In an effort to combat this we try to select girls from different cliques.

Our sorority does not give formal dances or wild parties. We have a Sorority Mom to advise us on important matters and provide chaperones.

We have joined in many charity drives. We are not undemocratic or expensive; we do not blackball girls.

I believe membership is worthwhile; it creates a sense of belonging and a strong bond, broadens your circle of friends, and develops a sense of responsibility to others.

Red Effectiveness

Nothing points up more clearly the effectiveness of the Communist propaganda onslaught than the current situation in the Congo.

The situation develops as follows:

1. Communist propaganda paints all colonial administrations as "exploiting the underprivileged."

2. Western democracies, in a frantic, ill-advised, unreasoning effort to "look good" in the eyes of the world, desert a slightly civilized area with no economy, no culture, and which can hardly be called a nation.

3. Into this vacuum only one influence dares penetrate for fear of "world opinion." That influence to date has been Communism.

Why, may I ask, should a decent, law-abiding parliamentary government grow suddenly so ashamed of colonial administration? Have they come to believe the Red propaganda? Do they doubt their own strength? Chess P. White Jr.

The Cry of Dolores

The quiet city of Dolores Hidalgo will become the capital of Mexico for one day on Sept. 16. On that day in 1810 Father Miguel Hidalgo shouted the famous cry for freedom there and began a never-ending revolution. On that day 150 years later, President Lopez Mateos will shout the cry from the same town, and across 29 states and two territories there will echo, "Viva independencia! Viva Mexico!"

Secretary of State Herter will pay a neighbor's respects. Soviet Premier Khrushchev will not be present, however, for the Mexicans deftly explained to him that their President should return Deputy Premier Mikoyan's 1959 call before any further Soviet visits.

Mexico stands today as a nation which has achieved revolutionary progress, including remarkable industrial growth, without Communism. Prior to the Independence Day celebrations, the government rounded up leading Communists, the noted artist Siqueiros among them. But Marxism retains some popular appeal, partly because the Communists have sought to identify themselves with Mexico's own revolution.

This is a revolution of many anniversaries. One hundred years ago, Juarez fought for liberal political reform. Fifty years ago, Madero began the revolution against dictatorship which evolved, through bloody civil war, into a social revolution. In different periods Mexicans have fought for different freedoms—from Spain first, from aristocracy and church later, and finally from foreign economic exploitation.

In the latter struggle, Mexico has mixed socialism with capitalism into an economic guacamole. Recently the government began final nationalization of the electric power industry. It already owns the railroads and oil industry. Long ago it completed the world's boldest venture in land reform. It requires majority Mexican ownership of businesses.

Yet this is the nation to which United States capital has been flowing at the rate of about $781,000,000 annually. And some of that capital has come in the form of loans for social purposes, not in the old form of exploitation of resources.

Mexico's individualistic revolution offers a pathway to North American understanding of Latin America. It symbolizes the aspirations of other American republics. The United States does not confuse these aspirations with Communism, nor should it mistake the struggle for progress as essentially one between capitalism and Communism. It is a struggle for independence, and independence does not mean North American hegemony any more than Communist tyranny.

The cry of Dolores came from a man who admired the principles of Thomas Jefferson. The national revolutions of Latin America should find quick sympathy and ready assistance from the United States.

The County's Police Problem

If the County Police Department is to be strengthened along the reasonable lines suggested by the county grand jury, Supervisor McNary will have to display more effective leadership than he has on police matters in the past.

The key to the necessary manpower and other improvements that the jury and others who have studied the situation recommend lies in Jefferson City. The county needs statutory (and perhaps even constitutional) authority to levy a county-wide police tax, with rebates being made by the county to those municipalities that maintain forces meeting certain minimum standards. This proposal was spelled out in detail in the Metropolitan St. Louis Survey.

The county also needs state authority to set up a police pension system; a bill to authorize one died in the last legislative session in the Senate judiciary committee, in which the county had representation, after having passed the House.

As a practical matter it is up to Mr. McNary to take the lead in persuading the county's legislative delegation in both Senate and House to support these proposals. If he does and if the county then puts up a solid front for the police proposals, there is not much doubt that outstaters would go along.

It is possible to justify Mr. McNary's ineffectiveness in the last Missouri Legislature on the ground that he was new in the Supervisor's job. Mr. McNary by now should have mastered the problem, the best solution and the means of achieving it. County citizens who want better police protection at reasonable costs will hope he takes the lead.

A Difficult Friend

President De Gaulle provided no comfort for the allies of France in his annual press conference. If they are not disappointed, it is because they expected little—least of all in connection with the French-Algerian conflict. Obviously anticipating a set-back for France in the United Nations when that issue is raised by the African bloc, De Gaulle simply denied in advance the competence of the U.N.

In doing so, he is in a strong legal position. From the outset of its troubles in North Africa, Paris has insisted that they are an internal matter. So far, even the Russians have gone along with this. But the new African states, the Asians and some other governments, too, are reluctant to accept it. Aware of the loss of prestige involved in a considerable part of the world, Washington and London especially have been hoping that De Gaulle would end their embarrassment by ending the Algerian war.

Matters hardly are helped by De Gaulle's attitude toward NATO, especially his complaint that "everything is commanded by Americans," and his hope that the alliance will be reorganized on a more nationalistic basis. While he advocated greater cohesion of "the Six" of continental Europe, he also stressed nationalism in this connection. While he wants more concerted action on the part of the West in resisting Communist penetration in Africa and elsewhere, his allies feel that it often is the French attitude which creates the appearance of "dispersion and even of rivalry." It is rather difficult to have more united action and more nationalism at the same time.

De Gaulle's problems, especially in Algeria, are not underestimated. Others are aware as he is of the possibility of an unfriendly majority in the U.N. They also are aware that his positions, which sometimes seem overly rigid, offer opportunities to the Russians to drum up anti-French and anti-Western sentiment. Should the U.N. be turned into an exclusive alliance of those ready to support France through thick and thin, or should it remain as nearly as possible a forum for all the world?

Hobbling Our Northwest

The question of whether the Snake River's power potential shall be fully or partially developed is again before the Federal Power Commission in the form of two competing proposals for dams downstream from Hell's Canyon, near Lewiston, Ida. Again, a public power proposal urges full development and a privately financed one urges much less.

The giveaway of the Hell's Canyon power site in the early days of the Eisenhower Administration was sought to be justified on grounds that no one would build the dam required for full development — the Federal Government having retreated from that responsibility.

It was a weak excuse, since the Government should have discharged the responsibility. But not even that weak excuse exists in the case of the new power site downstream. Thirteen public utility districts operating as the Washington Power Supply System are ready, able and eager to build a full-development dam there.

Their dam would utilize 1,440,000 kilowatts more of the power generating capacity of the river eventually than would the dam proposed by the four-company private syndicate. The waste of potential involved in the private project is more than the entire generating capacity of mighty Hoover Dam on the Colorado—more than six dams with the capacity of Union Electric's Bagnell Dam on the Osage here in Missouri.

FPC has already said that the site proposed by the public group is the one at which a multiple-purpose dam will best serve a comprehensive regional development plan.

The private group's site, three miles upstream, lies above the point at which the Salmon River enters the Snake. The public group's site lies just downstream from that confluence. It will impound twice as much water as would the proposed private dam.

And as in the case of Hell's Canyon, where limited private development cost the region a prodigious amount of storage capacity, the difference is vital. Storage of water on the Snake is the key to the entire power, flood control and irrigation potentials of the Pacific Northwest.

The Pacific Northwest is sensitive to inadequate developments which permanently foreclose a full realization of its electric power potential. That region is one of the fastest-growing industrially in the United States. During the Second World War it saw its industrialization retarded and its contribution to the war effort hampered by acute and recurring shortages of electric power. It realizes, from unfortunate experience, the recurring shortages of electric power.

The question is: Is the FPC as well aware of what is at stake—as Congress certainly was not in the Hell's Canyon case?

Nashville's Plan

While Houston and New Orleans, among major Southern cities, face problems involving integration of public schools, Knoxville has begun integration smoothly. In response to a court opinion, the Tennessee city opened first grades in eight schools to 28 Negro children. Meanwhile, surrounding Knox county decided to permit first-grade desegration without a court order and, in fact without publicity. And in Nashville, 157 Negro children have entered the first grades in ten previously white schools. Nashville gave its name to the grade-a-year plan four years ago. The plan has become the basis for integration in the South. It means twelve years of gradual progress, but that is far better than years of racist obstructionism.

Growing Pains at Champ

Bill Bangert's proposal that his microscopic Village of Champ be permitted to expand its territory by almost 800 per cent deserves more thoughtful attention in the County Council than was given to the creation of that municipality of 12 persons.

The 3100 acres of unincorporated area that Mr. Bangert wants to annex to Champ for an industrial park project lie within the flood plain of the Missouri river. The ground is presently zoned for "agricultural" and "open land" use, one of the latter being as a reservoir for storing flood waters, especially when there is danger that a Missouri river crest might roll down on a cresting Mississippi. The Bartholomew land use recommendations, on which the county's new zoning ordinance is to be based, retain the present zoning restrictions.

There may be a case for changing the zoning if the land in question is really suitable for industrial development. That is something for the County Planning Commission to study and recommend. But what is the case for permitting Champ to change the zoning, in effect, through annexation? Mr. Bangert says this would enable industry to be attracted to the site by a promise of no municipal taxes. But without taxes, or fees in lieu thereof, there won't be municipal services. These would have to be paid for in some other way by buyers of the industrial land. In that case, just what is gained by incorporating the land in an artificial municipality like Champ?

St. Louis county is in urgent need of the new job opportunities and expanded tax base that industrial development would bring. If Mr. Bangert can promote such development on a sound basis, let him go to it. But doing so through expansion of a fake municipality which has no citizens or much of anything else except Mr. Bangert raises many questions for the Council to answer.

In The Spirit of Magsaysay

The Hollands, father and son, are excellent choices for the $10,000 Magsaysay Award. For 60 years Sir Henry Holland, one of the world's great eye surgeons, has been associated with the Quetta Mission Hospital in Pakistan. His son, Dr. Ronald Holland, now is in charge of the hospital; Sir Henry is 85 years old and going blind. The award is paid from a fund set up by the Rockefeller Foundation to perpetuate the ideals of Ramon Magsaysay, Philippine president who was killed in an airplane crash in 1957. Magsaysay's brief political career was an inspiration to Asians, and the same is true of Sir Henry Holland, who could have had the comfortable life of a London specialist, but who preferred to expend his efforts in a little-known part of the world.

Super-Patriotism at the Olympics

Dispatches Make American Defeats Seem National Tragedy, Victories a 4th of July

Bill Vaughn in
The Kansas City Star

ROME.

Mr. Art Buchwald, a columnist, complained the other day that a serious mistake was made in distributing the 50 American press accreditations for the Olympics. They all seem to have fallen into the hands of sports writers.

I think he is right, although unlike Mr. Buchwald, I feel this way mainly out of sympathy for the sports writers.

The Mirror of Public Opinion

I doubt very much that they are going to last through the games. They are too sensitive.

Take last week. A tall teen-ager named John Thomas leaped casually into the flood-lit air of the Olympic Stadium. John Thomas can jump higher than anybody in the world. Especially any Russian. The bar was higher than seven feet. John Thomas jumps seven feet with galoshes on. His was to be our one sure gold medal in the XVII Olympiad.

Only this time he didn't make it. Two Russians did. Earlier, Armin Hary of Germany had won another American specialty, the 100 meters.

I thought it was too bad, and a lot of people around where I was sitting thought the same. But I learned from the sports writers that it was worse than bad. It was a national disaster on the scale of Pearl Harbor.

"The blackest day in the history of American track," one of them called it, and I got the idea he thought the words "of American track" were really unnecessary.

Bad management, too much sightseeing, overconfidence, too much wine and pasta, all these were blamed for the debacle of Black Thursday.

—Manning in Arizona Republic.

Some Olympic Events

In the battle for the minds of free men everywhere we had suffered a resounding defeat — all because one youngster hadn't jumped as high as he has been known to jump and a speedy German took the medal which has been considered our monopoly since the days of Charlie Paddock.

But the winter of discontent was made glorious summer by Glenn Davis, Cliff Cushman and Dick Howard with their clean sweep of the 400-meter hurdles, by Ralph Boston and Bo Roberson in the broadjump and by Wilma Rudolph in the women's 100 meters.

If Thursday was Pearl Harbor Friday was the Fourth of July. The 50 typewriters sang paeans of patriotic joy. This was the mighty American track team that they had been writing about all spring.

Forgotten was the bad management, the over-winning, over-dining and overconfidence. Reliable informants' tales of taxicabs rolling up at 2 a.m. at the Olympic village had been given indignant credence the day before. Now, if believed at all, they would have been chided for placing too much importance on the natural exuberance of athletic youth.

Well, I'm glad the week ended happily for the sports writers, but those periods of alternating hysteria and despair surely aren't good for them.

The Forward Look From The Memphis Commercial Appeal

The other day a sprightly old gentleman perched himself on a restaurant stool beside a reporter for The Commercial Appeal, ordered himself a hamburger "all the way," confessed he was a little bit hungry as he had just walked four miles, added that he was 82 years old and was worried about Communism.

"I don't," he said, "want to spend my old age living under Communism, and I'm hoping whoever is elected President is going to have the nerve to tell that Khrushchev where to change cars."

Between Book Ends Before the Bar of Justice

EICHMANN, by John Donovan. (Avon, 109 pgs., $ .35.)

EICHMANN, by Comer Clarke. (Ballantine Books, 153 pgs., $ .50.)

THE CASE AGAINST ADOLF EICHMANN, edited by Henry A. Zeiger. (New American Library, 192 pgs., $ .50.)

When on May 23, 1960, Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion tersely announced to the Israeli Parliament that Adolf Eichmann, one of the greatest of the Nazi war criminals, had been captured and was at that moment under arrest in Israel, the news electrified the world.

Now, sometime before next spring, Adolf Eichmann, former Obersturmbannfuhrer in the SS and the man whose specific assignment was the total annihilation of European Jewry, will be tried in Israel. His crime is the murder of 6,000,000 Jews during World War II. The figure challenges the imagination and the act staggers credulity. The closest approximation to a comprehension of his crimes is to imagine a foreign power blitzkrieging St. Louis, imprisoning its population within a military wall, and then coldly and methodically proceeding to murder through firing squads, starvation, gas chambers and crematoria, every infant, child, adolescent, mother and father. And then, it would be only one-sixth the number of people Eichmann and his fellow-Nazis murdered.

The world of publishing reacted quickly to the news of his capture. Three paperbacks are already on the racks. A fourth book is being put into final form, while a fifth is being held up for the final record and verdict. In spite of the time element, the books by John Donovan and Comer Clarke are well-written and complement each other, as they review the rise, fall, seclusion and capture of Eichmann. Clarke, a British correspondent, presents the more rounded view, providing many interesting glimpses into Eichmann's family and friends, as well as suggesting a parallel in the growth of Eichmann and Hitler.

The third book is actually an annotated collection of documents, illustrating the entire emergence and collapse of Nazism. Though there are minor discrepancies about the exact details of Eichmann's capture, the stories are convincingly and soberly narrated.

It is nevertheless difficult to read any of the three books without a sense of horror and shame. How can a human being in modern times act the way Eichmann did? Clarke writes that Eichmann's father is a religious man and that when he learned of his son's record at the war's end said, "He told me he was a racial expert—not a murderer. May God forgive him. He will certainly die for his crimes if ever he is caught. And if he did what you say, he deserves to die. . . ."

Other questions jar the mind. What conditions made it possible for such a person to rise to power? Where were the forces and voices of humanity when Nazism first started its unglorious march to world conquest, and why were they able to be victorious only after millions of innocents were slaughtered? What is the present responsibility of law-abiding nations and people in the face of totalitarian forces? Hopefully, Eichmann's trial will provide some of the answers.

Newspaper reports already adumbrate that Eichmann will plead innocence, claiming that his acts were effected in obeyance with orders from higher-ups and that he was merely a soldier, loyally serving his country. Such was the futile plea of many at the Nuremberg War Trials.

Yet, throughout the three books, as one reads the Nazi military records, particularly the testimony of Eichmann's associates and victims, it is obvious that Eichmann will have a difficult time establishing his innocence. He knew he was engaged in a heinous project. He hoodwinked some of his superiors when they protested his savage methods. His aversion for publicity, his preference for verbal orders, his attempts to destroy all official records which might implicate him, cry out his guilt. He even ignored orders from his boss, Himmler, to destroy the gas chambers, when the latter realized that Germany would be defeated and held accountable.

Eichmann emerges as a man driven by an idea and ideal of racial superiority who sought to mold them into a reality with the calmness and deliberateness of a surgeon and the crudeness and brutality of a barbarian.

In a larger sense, Eichmann will not stand alone before the bar of justice, for he was only one, though the foremost, of many. Civilized humanity will also be present. The trial will test its willingness and courage to judge and prevent the re-emergence of future Eichmanns.

CATHOLICS TO ERECT CHANCERY BUILDING

A new chancery building will be erected by the St. Louis Catholic Archdiocese to provide administrative offices, it was announced yesterday by Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter. It will be immediately west of the St. Louis Cathedral Rectory, 4431 Lindell boulevard.

The chancery has never had a building designed especially for it in its 134-year history, but it has occupied various structures. At present it occupies a remodeled apartment building at 4396 Lindell.

"The present demolition of residences west of our Cathedral gives us the long-desired opportunity of constructing a permanent and appropriate chancery building," Archbishop Ritter said.

"Appropriately it should be near the Cathedral, which is the official spiritual headquarters and Mother Church of the archdiocese.

"Recent sale of valuable archdiocesan real estate, including some adjoining the Cathedral, will provide the necessary funds for the construction of the new chancery building."

WRONG MUSIC, RIGHT HONOR FOR BERNSTEIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 10 (AP) — Conductor Leonard Bernstein, his arms poised, signaled the downbeat to Debussy's "fetes".

From the New York Philharmonic players, who rose to their feet, came the strains of "Anniversary Waltz."

Astonished, Bernstein heard the thousands who filled the Civic Opera House join in vocally.

The occasion for the surprise gesture last night was the ninth wedding anniversary of Bernstein and his wife, the former Felicia Montealegre. To add to the surprise, she had flown in for the occasion.

REPRESENTATIVE EDITH N. ROGERS

EDITH N. ROGERS, HOUSE MEMBER, DIES

BOSTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Representative Edith Nourse Rogers (Rep.), Massachusetts, died today at Massachusetts General Hospital. She was 79 years old.

Mrs. Rogers went to Congress first at the age of 44, in 1925, to succeed her husband, John Jacob Rogers, who died in his sixth term.

At that time she said she would stay in Washington no more than a few years, but she was re-elected time and again, serving 18 consecutive terms, a length of service exceeded at present by only six representatives.

Mrs. Rogers died of a heart attack induced by pneumonia. It was not known at once how long she had been ill.

She was to have been unopposed for renomination in next Tuesday's Republican primary. She was one of the state's six Republican representatives in the Congress last session.

DR. BUFORD RICE FUNERAL HELD IN SANTA MONICA

Funeral services for Dr. Buford A. Rice, a dentist in Webster Groves for 30 years prior to his retirement six years ago, were held yesterday in Santa Monica, Calif., where he had lived since retiring. Burial also was there.

Dr. Rice, 68 years old, died of a heart attack Wednesday at his home in Santa Monica. He was a graduate of St. Louis University Dental School.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Lou Rice; his wife, Mrs. Ruth Rice; a daughter, Mrs. John Viescas of Santa Monica; a sister, Miss Lillian Rice, and a brother, J. A. Rice, both of St. Louis.

JOHN R. WYNNE FUNERAL SERVICES TO BE MONDAY

Funeral services for John R. Wynne, Post-Dispatch advertising salesman, will be Monday at 9 a.m. at St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church, 5821 Pernod avenue, with burial in Calvary Cemetery.

Mr. Wynne died yesterday at St. John's Hospital of a brain ailment. He was 62 years old and lived at 6038 Hancock avenue. He had worked on Illinois newspapers, and came to the Post-Dispatch from the old Star-Times about 26 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Augusta Strauss Wynne; two sons, Robert J. and James E. Wynne, and two sisters, the Misses Ellen and Marguerite Wynne.

BOB HOPE SIGNS NEW PACT

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 10 (UPI) —Bob Hope and NBC yesterday signed a new five-year contract calling for the comedian to star in from six to eight hour-long special television shows yearly.

Hope also will be available to NBC for a two-hour show each year. Hope began his association with NBC radio 25 years ago.

DISCIPLES SPONSOR NEW CONGREGATION

By JOHN T. STEWART
Church Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

A new Christian (Disciples) Church will be established tomorrow at Cahokia, Ill., five miles south of East St. Louis. The new congregation is sponsored by the Disciples Council of Greater St. Louis and the Illinois Disciples of Christ.

The new congregation will be formally constituted at a service at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church, 2300 Jerome Lane. The sermon will be given by the Rev. Dr. Morris H. Pullin of Bloomington, Ill., general secretary of the 624 Christian churches in Illinois.

Presiding at the service will be the Rev. Dr. W. Elbert Starn, executive secretary of the St. Louis Disciples Council, a cooperative agency of the 22 Christian churches in this area. Taking part in the service will be the organist and choir of Central Christian Church, Granite City, Ill.; ushers from Watson Terrace Christian Church, St. Louis, and women who serve as hostesses from First Christian Church, East St. Louis.

The new congregation will meet temporarily in a brick residence at 1709 Jerome lane, which has been purchased by the sponsoring groups. Beginning tomorrow, services will be held every Sunday, with Sunday school at 9:30 and church service at 10:45 a.m.

A church will be built in the St. Louis Gardens subdivision of Cahokia, with the approval of the Church Planning and Development Commission of the Illinois Council of Churches.

Cahokia Christian Church will have a full time minister, beginning in November. He is the Rev. Robert A. Scott, who has been pastor of the Christian Church of Garden City, Iowa, for four years. He holds both his A.B. and divinity degrees from Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. The Rev. Dr. Starn will conduct Sunday services until the Rev. Mr. Scott arrives.

VINITA PARK METHODISTS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Vinita Park Methodist Church, 8145 Page boulevard, will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary this weekend. The Rev. Dr. Wesley H. Hager, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, will be the speaker at a vesper service today at 5 p.m. The anniversary dinner and reunion will be held at 6 p.m.

The anniversary service will be held tomorrow at 9:40 a.m. The pastor, the Rev. W. Cannon Kinnard, will preach the sermon, and L. B. Lehew, a charter member, will speak on the history of the congregation.

At 4:30 p.m. tomorrow, a service of music will be held under the direction of Robert M. Webber, organist and choirmaster of the church.

BIBLES PLACED BY GIDEONS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gideons International placed 2,773,462 Bibles and New Testaments in 53 nations in the year which ended July 1. The organization, founded in 1908, now has about 12,000 members in the United States, it was shown by a report adopted at the group's annual meeting.

THE REV. DR. MORRIS H. PULLIN

METHODISTS PLAN DISTRICT SCHOOL FOR WORKERS

The St. Louis district of the Methodist Church will open its annual school for Christian workers at Grace Methodist Church, Skinker and Waterman boulevards, tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. Bishop Eugene M. Frank will deliver the keynote address at the opening session.

The school will continue through Thursday, with weekday classes from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Five special classes for workers with children will be held daily from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Nineteen courses in various phases of church school work will be offered in the two divisions.

Tuition is free, and the classes are open to persons of all faiths.

The Rev. W. Cannon Kinnard, pastor of Vinita Park Methodist Church, is dean of the school. Royce Adams, a layman of Webster Hills Methodist Church, is chairman of the district Board of Managers, which represents 1450 volunteer church school teachers and workers in the 43 churches of the St. Louis district. The Rev. Dr. Albea Godbold is superintendent of the district.

CHURCH IN FLORISSANT WILL LAY CORNERSTONE

Florissant Valley Baptist Church will lay the cornerstone of a $200,000 building tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. The new unit adjoins existing buildings at Highway 140 and St. Ferdinand street, Florissant.

The new building of brick and panel wall construction will provide an auditorium seating more than 500 persons for worship services, the Sunday school department rooms, and 33 classrooms.

Florissant Valley Church has had one or more units under construction during each of the past six years. During that time church membership has grown from 185 to 853. The Rev. Wilbur N. Thorlakson is the pastor.

ST. JOSEPH SHRINE WILL HONOR SAINT

The Shrine of St. Joseph, Eleventh and Biddle streets, will hold its annual service in honor of St. Peter Claver tomorrow. Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter will assist in the sanctuary at the Mass at 5:30 p.m.

The annual service commemorates a miracle of healing that was reported at the Shrine 96 years ago. It is said to have been through the intercession of St. Claver that Ignatius Strecker, a German immigrant, was cured. Surviving grandchildren of Strecker and some of his great-grandchildren, with their relatives and friends, are expected to attend the service.

Bishop David Hickey, S. J., will celebrate the Mass. The sermon will be given by the Rev. William A. Ulrich, S. J., a missionary to Honduras.

After the Mass, a procession will be held with a relic of St. Peter Claver, and the service will close with the Benediction.

Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of St. Philip Neri Church and their leaders will take part in the services.

The Rev. Anthony J. Corey S.J. is pastor of the Shrine of St. oseph, and the Rev. Quirinus P. Leonard S.J. is assistant. The parish was founded in 1843.

EUREKA CHURCH TO HOLD THREE SPECIAL EVENTS

Central Baptist Church of Eureka, Mo., will hold three special events next week, observing the twenty-fifth anniversary of the pastor, the Rev. Max Payne, and the twenty-ninth anniversary of the church, and dedicating a new unit of the educational building.

Special services will be held tomorrow, Wednesday, and Sunday, Sept. 18. The guest speakers will be J. Wilson Fisher, secretary of the Brotherhood of the Missouri Baptist Convention, Jefferson City; the Rev. Dr. Luther A. Foster, president of Hannibal-LaGrange College, Hannibal, Mo.; the Rev. Arthur Selves of the Sunday School Department, Missouri Baptist Convention; the Rev. Dr. H. H. McGinty, editor of "Word and Way," Baptist state paper, Jefferson City, and the Rev. Dr. Homer DeLozier, executive secretary of the St. Louis Baptist Association.

Since the Rev. Mr. Payne became pastor of the Eureka Church in 1935, the membership has grown from 44 to 450.

Baptists Train Ministers.

The six theological seminaries of the Southern Baptist Convention will enroll 6000 students this fall. One of these schools, Midwestern Seminary, is at Kansas City.

DR. EUGENE BLAKE TO GIVE PUBLIC ADDRESS HERE

The Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, stated clerk of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., and a former president of the National Council of Churches, will give a public address at Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, Spring avenue and Russell boulevard, next Saturday at 8 p.m. His subject will be "The Church in a Changing Age."

The Rev. Dr. Blake, a native of St. Louis, is chief executive officer of his denomination, with headquarters at Philadelphia.

Tyler Place Church will hold a planning conference for all officers of the church next Saturday, and the Rev. Dr. Blake will address the closing session. The conference will open at 4 p.m. The purpose is to plan the future program of the church.

The Rev. Dr. Marion F. Stuart is pastor of Tyler Place Church. George A Speer is chairman of the planning commission.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL PLANS SERVICES

Members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will attend their annual fall spiritual exercises at two locations next week, it is announced by George E. Heneghan, president of the society's Metropolitan Central Council.

The services will take place Tuesday at St. Joseph Home for Boys, 4753 South Grand boulevard, and Thursday at Mt. Grace Convent, 1438 East Warne avenue, both at 8 p.m.

The Rev. Joseph A. McNicholas will conduct the spiritual exercises both evenings. He is assistant pastor of Most Holy Name of Jesus Church and assistant director of Catholic Charities.

Churches Pledge Relief.

GENEVA (AP) — Churches throughout the world have pledged more than $4,000,000 for special World Refugee Year projects proposed by the World Council of Churches. The projects include relief work in 19 countries.

New Pastor

THE REV. FRANK M. NAGY

UNITED CHURCH OF CARONDELET CALLS MINISTER

The Rev. Frank M. Nagy will preach his first sermons tomorrow as the new pastor of Carondelet United Church of Christ, 7423 Michigan avenue. Services will be held at 9 and 10:30 a.m.

The Rev. Mr. Nagy has been pastor of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Rosenberg, Tex., for eight years. At Carondelet Church, he succeeds the Rev. Walter Baltzer, who resigned to accept a call to a church at Marine, Ill.

A native of Connecticut, the Rev. Mr. Nagy was graduated from Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Ill., in 1945, and from Eden Theological Seminary, St. Louis, in 1948. His first pastorate was at Marietta, O.

While at Rosenberg, the Rev. Mr. Nagy was president for three years of the ministerial alliance of Fort Bend county, and also held several offices in the Texas Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

UNITED CHURCH PLANS WORKSHOP ON LEADERSHIP

The Leadership Committee of the United Church of Christ is sponsoring workshops at Pilgrim Congregational Church, 826 Union boulevard, on six successive Tuesday evenings, beginning next Tuesday. Sessions will be held from 7:45 to 9:45 p.m.

The workshops are designed for parents, church school teachers, members of church boards and other interested persons, it is announced by Miss Carol M. Warner, director of Christian education of Pilgrim Church.

The workshops will deal with three questions: "Who Am I?" "Who Are You?" and "How Did I Get Involved in This Church?"

The leaders will be the minister of Pilgrim Church, the Rev. Dr. Allen Hackett, and three professors from Eden Theological Seminary, the Rev. Dr. Allen Miller, the Rev. Dr. Harold A. Pflug, and Prof. Oscar Rumpf.

Members of the workshop will meet in small groups around tables for each session. They will be instructed in ways by which teachers and other leaders may work in their own churches. Registration may be made in advance through local churches, or next Tuesday at Pilgrim Church.

DAY OF RECOLLECTION

The Mary and Martha Sodality of St. Mary Magdalen Church, Kingshighway and Bancroft avenue, will sponsor a Day of Recollection Wednesday at the Mercy Retreat House, 723 South Laclede Station road, Webster Groves. Persons wishing to attend are asked to meet in the parish school yard at 9 a.m., and transportation will be provided to the retreat house.

Grid Cardinals Defeat Eagles, 34-13, Before 23,666

Teammates Open Wide Path for Redbird Ball Carrier

Perfect execution in the line by St. Louis grid Cardinals made the ball carrying task of MAL HAMMACK look easy. The Cardinal fullback picked up 15 yards on this second period play in the exhibition game with the Philadelphia Eagles at Busch Stadium last night. St. Louis's entry in the National Football League won the contest, 34 to 13. The Eagles' No. 63 is TOM ADDISON, No. 72 is JESS RICHARDSON.

Hammack's Drives Set Stage for Passes

By Robert Morrison

No sweeter sound ever struck their ears, the football Cardinals agreed, than the strong, insistent chant that came from the crowd of 23,666 last night at Busch Stadium—"Go, Big Red . . . go, Big Red."

And go the Big Red did, to the tune of a sparkling 34-13 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, the first triumph here for the team since its transfer from its old Chicago home.

One after another—John Roach, King Hill, Jerry Norton, Ken Gray, Perry Richards and the rest—all grinned in the locker room and said it was the first time they'd heard it. It never was like this in Chicago.

It was just a pre-season game, of course, and it doesn't count in the National Football League's standings. Significantly though, this was the biggest winning margin the Cardinals enjoyed in such pre-season exhibition play here. They have won four times in seven such appearances.

Van Brocklin Out of Action.

Philadelphia didn't have its noted veteran, Norm Van Brocklin, doing his usual pin-point passing business because he had cut his right thumb trying to open a soda bottle Thursday. It would have bothered his throwing too much, said Coach Buck Shaw.

The Eagles, too, were missing defensive stalwarts at the middle guard spot, the injured Chuck Weber and rookie Maxie Baughan. Card Coach Frank Ivy was the first to note this after the game, but he didn't try to conceal his pleasure in his own squad's performance.

"I thought we had real good effort this time," he said with a smile, "and I hope the fans liked what they saw."

"It might have helped our offense through the line because the Eagles didn't have Baughan and Weber, but we had a lot of men out, too."

The Cards didn't have their ace ball carrier, John Crow, nor did they have four first-rank men of the defense, Billy Stacy, Dale Memmelaar, Ed Culpepper and John Tracey. But after a slow start, the offense, featured by Mal Hammack's hard running, set up the passing game that counted.

Hill and Roach Star.

King Hill, quarterbacking for nearly three quarters, had a 21-6 lead when he handed the job over to Roach. After the Eagles closed the margin to 21-13, Roach did a poised and skillful job of restoring the bulge to 28-13. Philadelphia's need to come from father behind then led to errors which Bobby Joe Conrad eventually converted into two 17-yard field goals.

As the Cards were driving for their second touchdown of the game in the second quarter, fisticuffs broke out. In the chain reaction, Card center Don Gillis and Philadelphia's Don Owens, a St. Louis product, got into a fight. N.F.L. Commissioner Pete Rozelle said that the scrap carries an automatic $50 fine, but since it was a pre-season game the players will have a chance to recover the money by good behavior during the season.

Hammack carried 18 times for 103 yards—the best Card effort of the pre-season run which now shows three victories and two defeats. Joe Childress had an 18-yard burst with Hill blocking and reached the Eagle 12 to set up that second Card touchdown.

Ulmo Randle (Sonny to almost everybody) caught passes for the first and second touchdowns, and Richards had one TD pass — from Roach.

Lewis Sent to Dallas.

But one of the Cards' best receivers watched from the stands. Woodley Lewis learned he had been plucked by the Dallas Cowboys in the latest N.F.L. action to aid that new franchise in its patronage battle against the rival Dallas team in the new American Football League. The Cowboys were given their pick from seven men on each N.F.L. club who were not named as the 36 "untouchables" for each club. The Cards gambled — because Randle had been doing well at the same split end position which the veteran Lewis manned.

McKinley and O'Fallon Win in Grid Openers

By Bob Posen

Since football was opening with the baseball season still at high pitch, it seemed appropriate last night that strength up the middle, a term often associated with winning baseball teams, helped McKinley win its grid opener from Christian Brothers High. The Goldbugs won, 7-0, on a fourth quarter quarterback sneak by Mickey Robinson at CBC's field.

Earlier in the day speedy Leonard Scott scored four touchdowns to lead O'Fallon Tech to a 25-6 victory over DeAndreis. He scored on runs of 50, 60, 20 and 30 yards.

In McKinley's case the strength in the middle was Robinson's score and a rock-'em, sock-'em center of the line that kept CBC backs in trouble all evening.

C.B.C. Runners Stopped

Led by All-State guard John Rappe and center Orlando Rannenberg, the Goldbug defense caught Cadet runners 11 times behind the line of scrimmage, throwing them for a total of 33 yards.

"I thought we did all right," CBC Coach Jack Kersting said. "We just couldn't hold back the center of their line. We couldn't run any delays and our passers didn't get protection. We had to run just straight handoffs or they would be in our backfield."

McKinley, with eight starters returning from last year's Public High League champions, was indeed tough on defense. But the Bugs had their own troubles on offense against the stubborn Cadets.

In a game played almost entirely on the ground, McKinley's deepest penetration for three quarters was to the CBC 31, where CBC's Al Fuch recovered Wayne Shoffner's fumble.

Meanwhile, CBC had managed one threat, to the McKinley 13, where the Goldbugs held on downs in the second period.

Six Plays Net Score.

In the fourth quarter, after CBC was set back to its 14 by two 15-yard penalties, the Goldbugs' veteran line put on the pressure. Rappe threw runners for losses of four yards and two yards, then tackle Paul Oakley and end Willie Jones pulled down another for a six-yard loss. That put the ball on the two-yard line, and the Cadets' end zone punt was returned to their 30.

It took just six plays from there to the touchdown, with a pair of 11-yard runs by Shoffner covering most of the ground. After Robinson pushed for the final foot Harry Duspiwa kicked the extra point, about six minutes before the game ended.

Troy Will Carry U.S. Flag at Close Of Olympic Games

ROME, Sept. 10 (AP)—Mike Troy of Indianapolis, who set a world record in winning the 200-meter butterfly and also swam on the winning medley relay team, will be the United States standard bearer at closing ceremonies of the Olympic games tomorrow.

Troy, a sophomore at Indiana, said this was his last Olympic appearance. He does not intend to try for the 1964 Games in Tokyo.

Decathlon champion Rafer Johnson of Kingsburg, Calif., carried the American flag in the opening ceremonies Aug. 25, the first Negro to be so honored.

Wade Stars as Rams Defeat Forty-Niners

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10 (UPI) — Veteran quarterback Billy Wade, regaining his No. 1 job, led the Los Angeles Rams to a 28-17 victory over the San Francisco Forty-Niners in an N.F.L. exhibition game last night.

A crowd of 51,398 watched Wade pass for two touchdowns and steer the Rams to two other scores.

Wade actually won back his field general job from Buddy Humphrey in the second half of last weekend's victory in the Dallas Cowboys and coach Bob Waterfield started him last night, leaving him in all the way.

The Forty Niners used John Brody at quarterback in the first half and the veteran Y. A. Tittle in the second half. Each passed for one touchdown.

Maplewood Triumphs

Maplewood won the Baptist women's senior softball championship with a 7-6 victory over Riverview at Forest Park. In men's competition, Third Baptist nipped the Maplewood Blues, 4-2, to even the series at 1-1. The third contest will be played next week.

Southern Association.
Birmingham 3-7, Chattanooga 1-3.
Little Rock 9-4, Memphis 2-5.
Other games postponed.

Three Tied For Utah Golf Lead

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept 10 (AP)—A player without an under-par opening round wasn't expected to have much chance today as the $20,000 Utah Open entered the second round.

In the first round of the four-day, 72-hole event, half the 119-man field either hit par or smashed it on the par-71 Salt Lake Country Club course.

Leading the assault on the 6310-yard canyon layout were Jay Hebert of Lafayette, La., Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., and Bill Collins of Crystal River, Fla., all with 64s.

Then came Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., the 1958 Utah Open winner and the P.G.A.'s No. 3 money winner, with 65. Little known Huston Laclaair Jr. of Birmingham, Ala., also carded 65.

Rochester Wins, Moves Into Playoffs

ROCHESTER, Sept. 11 (AP)—Last call for playoff berths in the International baseball league goes out this weekend, with only one left, and two teams trying to squeeze in.

Rochester clinched the third spot last night with a 5-1 victory over Montreal. Buffalo, a 7-5 winner over first place Toronto, must hold off fifth place Jersey City to clinch fourth place and the final playoff spot.

Jersey City showed no signs of cracking with a 4-3 victory over Columbus, while Richmond defeated Miami, 3-2.

Rochester has only single games today and tomorrow and can finish no worse than fourth. The Wings lead Buffalo by a game and a half and Jersey City by two and a half. The latter two have three games remaining.

Thurmers Win in Regional Softball

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 10—Thurmers of St. Louis made an impressive start in the Western regional softball tournament here today, defeating the Boone (Ia.) team, 1-0. A home run by Thurmers' left fielder, Jim Bain, in the fifth inning, nailed down the shutout victory for hurler Robert Allen. He allowed only three hits, fanned six batters.

Other scores in the first round included: Barnes Stores of Springfield 2, Wichita 1; Omaha 2, Cape Girardeau 1; Boone (Ia.) 6, Kansas City 0.

Foulds Win Playoff.

The Foulds defeated the Twenty-seventh Ward team, 9-6, in the senior Khoury baseball league playoffs last night. Charlie Miller, pitching for the winners, yielded three hits and struck out 12. Paul Farles and Paul Bridges paced the Fould attack.

Juveniles Compete in Top Races

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 10 (UPI)—Miss Patrice Jacobs's Hail to Reason can virtually wrap up the two-year-old colt championship and take another step toward First Landing's juvenile money-winning crown in today's $135,065 Playground Stakes at Atlantic City.

Some light also could be thrown on the two-year-old filly title in the fifty-fourth running of the $96,060 Matron Stakes at Aqueduct. In other major racing events across the country, the West's top juveniles are slated to go postward in the $81,780 Del Mar Futurity and a bulky field of 16 has been named for the $31,250 Chicago Handicap at Hawthorne.

Hail to Reason, five times stakes winner this year, heads a field of 13 in the seven furlong event—the richest race in the history of the resort track. In winning eight of 17 starts, Hail to Reason has earned $246,642, which puts him in striking distance of the $396,460 won by First Landing his first year out.

Charlton Clay's Rose Bower, winner of the Princess Pat Stakes at Arlington Park Stakes last month, is the 5-2 choice in the six-furlong filly test at Aqueduct. Good Move, daughter of Native Dancer, and Little Tumbler are other highly rated rivals in the field of 13.

Short Jacket and Sullivan's Bud head a field of eight in Del Mar's six furlong feature.

Thompson's 406 MPH Fastest Ever by Auto But Is Not Accepted

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah, Sept. 10 (AP) — Mickey Thompson became the world's fastest man on wheels, flashing across the Bonneville Salt Flats in his Challenger I car at 406.6 miles per hour yesterday.

But the 31-year-old hot rodder from El Monte, Calif., missed a chance to set an official auto speed record because of mechanical trouble that stopped him on the required second run.

The driveline snapped as he was about to shift into second at 210 m.p.h. He shifts into high at 315.

Thus the 13-year-old record of 394.196 m.p.h. still stands, set by the late Sir John Cobb of England in 1947 with two runs here of 403.135 and 388.019. To break this, Thompson would have had to better that 394.196 average by at least 1 per cent.

Thompson, deeply disappointed after having the record almost within his grasp, vowed to try again after Donald Campbell of England and his $4,500,000 Bluebird II go at it next week.

Yanks Making Bids In Three Sports as Olympics Near End

ROME, Sept. 10 (AP)—Wiry Johnny Kelley, a Groton (Conn.) school teacher, two husky weightlifters and the highest-powered Olympic basketball team ever will make America's last gold medal bids today in the last full program of the 1960 games.

Only the basketball team, triggered by Oscar Robertson, Jerry West and Jerry Lucas, seems a certainty to carry it off.

Kelley, America's top marathon runner in the last four or five years, is not among the prime favorites for the gruelling 26-mile-plus run through Rome. Gordon Mackenzie of New York and Alex Breckenridge of Quantico, Va., also will compete for the United States.

Winner of only one of six classes in weightlifting competition it used to dominate, the United States tries for the heavyweight title with a double entry of 31-year-old Jim Bradford of Washington, D.C., the 1952 Olympic runner-up, and Norb Schemansky of Dearborn, Mich., the 1952 champion.

U.S. Five Plays Brazil.

In basketball, the United States opposes Brazil at 4:30 p.m. (St. Louis time) in going after a gold medal it has never failed to win. The American all-stars, coached by California's Pete Newell, have won seven straight games — keeping intact the United States record of never having lost an Olympic basketball game.

The Olympics, set in motion Aug. 25, were running down as Sunday's closing ceremonies got closer and closer. The greatest assemblage ever—some 8000 athletes from 85 countries—had now settled all the issues except the marathon, scattered fencing, shooting, gymnastic, equestrian and weightlifting sports, plus a basketball final.

Russia had collected 38 gold medals, 28 silver and 29 bronze to be the unofficial team champion with 723 points, at the end of Friday's competition. The United States had acquired 33 gold, 18 silver and 15 bronze and 532½ points.

Germany was a good, and surprising, third with 10 golds, 19 silvers and 11 bronze, and 299¼ points.

U.S. Shooter Nosed Out.

In the first Saturday final, Marine Sgt. Jim Hill of Oceanside, Calif., narrowly missed winning a gold medal in shooting. Hill lost the small bore rifle prone-position final by one point to Germany's 18-year-old Peter Kohnke. Kohnke had 590 points out of a possible 600. Hill took the second-place silver medal with 589.

United States fencers upset Russia but then lost to Poland in the semifinals of sabre team tournament. The United States team still has a chance for the bronze medal. Poland eliminated the Americans, 9-3, in the semifinals after the United States had surprised the Russians. The Soviet and American teams each won 8 bouts but the Yanks were declared winners on the basis of receiving fewer hits against—65 to 67.

Finland's Eugen Ekman and Russia's Boris Shaklin shared the gold medal in the pomelled horse event of men's individual gymnastics. Both scored 19.375 points. It was Russia's thirty-ninth gold medal and Finland's first of the Games. Because of the tie, no silver medal was awarded. Japan's Shuji Tsurumi won third place.

Albert Asaryan, an Armenian, won Russia's second straight gymnastics gold medal of the day with a flawless performance on the rings which earned him a total of 19.725 points. Shakhlin added a silver medal to the two gold medals he has already won by finishing second with 19.500. Japan's Takashi Ono and Vili Kapsazov of Bulgaria tied for third with 19.425 points each.

Shaklin took his second gold medal in the parallel bars. Nobukuki Aihara of Japan won the free standing gold medal and teammate Ono won his second gold medal in the horizontal fixed bar, last event of the tournament.

Aussie Riders Triumph.

Lawrence Morgan of Australia won the individual gold medal in the gruelling three-day equestrian event at the Olympic Games and clinched the team gold medal in the event for Australia. Morgan rode Salad Days.

The United States was eliminated from team competition when two of its four riders went out yesterday, but John Plumb of Syosset, N.Y., was expected to finish about fifteenth in the individual compeition.

Neale Lavis of Australia, riding Mirrabooka, finished second for the individual silver medal. The bronze medal was won by Anton Buhler of Switzerland, on Gays Park.

Switzerland won the team silver medal and France won the team bronze.

Geronimo Cruz sank a free shot after the final buzzer rang to give the Philippines a 65-64 victory over Mexico in a consolation bracket basketball game.

Pirates Recall Infielder Barone

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates said last night they have received special permission from the baseball commissioner's office to recall infielder Dick Barone from the Columbus team of the International League.

The Pirates said Barone was being recalled because of a wrist fracture suffered earlier this week by shortstop Dick Groat. Dick Schofield has been playing shortstop for the Pirates since then.

Lee to Join Pros

DENVER, Sept. 10 (UPI)—George Lee, the outstanding player on the Denver-Chicago Truckers of the National Basketball League last season, announced today he was quitting the team. Lee, who averaged 14.1 points at forward with the amateur Denver team last season, is expected to join the professional Detroit Pistons. He played collegiate basketball at Michigan University.

Moryn and Jackson Combine for Cards' Win

Big Moose Drives in 3 Tallies

By Neal Russo
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff

Philadelphia, Sept. 10 — Walt Moryn passed the ammunition for the Navy in the South Pacific. He still provides explosions, but with a stick of ash instead of dynamite.

Big Moose's latest blast came last night with two on base, and his most grateful teammate was Larry Jackson. The 4-1 victory cut to five innings by rain enabled Jackson to achieve his major league high of 16 triumphs.

Because the Pirates also won, the Cardinals remained six games behind the National League leaders. Pittsburgh has just 19 games left.

St. Louis, which has won five straight, plays 21 more.

"I know I hit the ball good," Moryn said of his twelfth home run, "but I didn't think it would be a home run. It was the first one I ever hit into the left field stands at this park. I took the same low-away pitch for a third strike in the third inning."

The fifth-inning home run, which followed a double by Stan Musial off the left-center screen and a walk to Ken Boyer, was Moryn's tenth as a Cardinal in just 146 official at-bats. The three R.B.I.s lifted his total as a Redbird to 34.

Phillies manager Gene Mauch said, "some guys hit better when they're traded to contending clubs. Maybe Moryn is one."

During the 44-minute wait before the game was called, Jackson rested.

"The rain was a break, because I should be that much stronger against Milwaukee Tuesday," Jackson said after yielding four hits and walking none.

Jackson pinpointed his recent trouble, which brought his defeat total to 12.

"I was getting the ball belt-high instead of knee-high, so even in warming up, I started to concentrate on throwing the ball down," Jackson said. "I even purposely threw the ball in the dirt while warming up."

Bob Del Greco's double and Ruben Amaro's single produced the fifth-inning run that kept Jackson from a pocket-size shutout.

"Del Greco hit a good pitch, low and away, but I got a slider too high on Amaro," Jackson said.

Musial, shaking a 3-for-31 slump with three straight hits that boosted him from .274 to .282, explained it simply, "I feel great when I come to Pennsylvania."

Stan's infield hit scored Julian Javier, who had opened the game with a double off Robin Roberts. The Man pulled a single to right, then hit an inside curve for his double.

"I hadn't been going so good, so I was just trying to hit straightaway or to left field," Musial said.

Javier again impressed ex-infielder Mauch with his glove. In the first inning Julian robbed Bob Malkmus of a hit by ranging far behind second base and throwing a quick strike to first base.

"The play was just great," Mauch said. "It was just the way Red Schoendienst did it so often when he was younger, but Javier is faster than Red was in getting to the ball. Javier is loose out there, like Red."

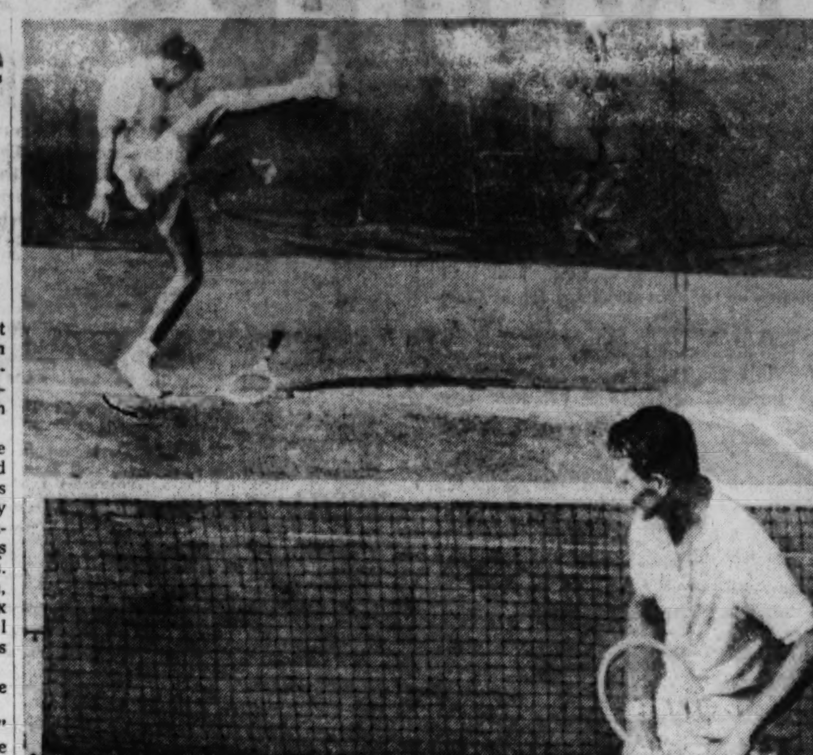

REDBIRD NOTES

Ray Sadecki will take an 8-7 record into today's game at Connie Mack Stadium against Jim (3-12) Owens.

The game won't start until 3:05 (St. Louis time) because of network TV commitments. Channel 11 in St. Louis will carry today's and tomorrow's games. Curt Simmons is to face the Phils' John Buzhardt Sunday.

Ernie Broglio might miss a pitching turn or more, the Cardinals were told, after Dr. Stan London examined their young pitching ace this morning at Jewish hospital in St. Louis. Dr. London said that Broglio was bothered by "a most painful and severe spasm" in his neck, which apparently was hurt in his next-to-last start, then aggravated in Wednesday's 2-1 victory at Pittsburgh. Ernie was scheduled to face Milwaukee here Monday night.

Phillie fan appreciation night drew 18,677. Part of the lure was the awarding of appliances as prizes. . . . The umpiring crew was down to three because Dusty Boggess rested in a hospital. He left the Chicago-Philadelphia game Thursday night after being struck just below the heart by a foul tip. . . . Jackson struck out three.

Buchholz Kicks About Own Miss

EARL BUCHHOLZ of St. Louis, who went on to win this match from HAM RICHARDSON (foreground) kicks in disgust after missing a shot in the national men's singles at Forest Hills. Earl advanced to the semifinal round by outlasting Richardson, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Gene Freese Injured By Estrada Pitch

CHICAGO, Sept. 10 (UPI) — Gene Freese, third baseman for the Chicago White Sox, was struck by a pitched ball as he led off the second inning against the Baltimore Orioles here last night.

The pitch by Chuck Estrada hit Freese just above his left wrist and the ball careened into his neck and cheek. He was removed from the game, and an ice pack was placed on the wrist. X-rays would be taken, a club spokesman said.

Buchholz in U.S. Semifinal; McKinley Defeated by Fraser

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 10—Slumped on a brown leather couch in the men's locker room, Butch Buchholz explained the comeback that sent him streaking into today's semifinals of the National tennis championships against Australian champ Rod Laver.

"When I was down, 3-0, in the second set," Butch said, "I was so scared, I just told myself: 'You just got to start hitting out.' And when I did, I got my confidence back."

The St. Louis slugger ran off nine straight games from that 3-0 deficit in the second set. This sparked his 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 victory over semi-retired Ham Richardson yesterday after Laver outshot Bob Wilson, the British Davis-Cupper, 9-7, 6-1, 6-3.

Foresees Tough Match.

"Laver is going to be tough. For me he's tougher than Fraser," Buchholz said. "Laver sometimes gets so hot, he just rips off points. But sometimes he hits 'em into the stands. I hope he's hitting them into the stands. If I can pressure him, maybe he will."

This, of course, is the first time that Buchholz has advanced as far as the semis in the Nationals.

"I'm nervous," Butch laughed. "I'm not nervous shaky, just sort of nervous on edge thinking about it. Last night I just couldn't sleep thinking about it. "I just want it so bad, I know if I beat Laver, I can beat Fraser in the final. I just know it."

Later in the Richardson match, an attack of finger cramps glued Buchholz's right hand to his racket. "That's nerves too, I guess," Butch said. "That happened to me in Mexico during the Davis Cup.

Just then, Chuck McKinley barged through the door, walked hurriedly to his locker and disgustedly tossed his three rackets onto the gray wooden bench. There was no doubt that he had lost to Aussie Neale Fraser, the top-seeded Wimbledon champion.

McKINLEY OUT QUICKLY.

"Too bad, Chuck," Buchholz said without even knowing the 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 score. "Did you play badly?"

"I don't know," McKinley snapped. "It was over too quick. It seemed like I just never hit a shot." Fraser's corkscrew serve had skewered McKinley on the grandstand court, where the wind blew gustily.

In the horseshoe shaped stadium, where Buchholz played Richardson, the wind isn't as much of a factor although it sometimes swirls in annoying circles.

Fraser now opposes Dennis Ralston, the 18-year-old California comet who jolted unseeded Australian Bob Mark, 1-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2, there are no available records, but many old-timers believe that Ralston is the youngest player to get into the semifinals.

(The national tennis semifinals will be telecast on KSD-TV, Channel 5, at 4 p.m. today).

Orioles' Lead Cut To .001

DETROIT, Sept. 10 (AP)—The New York Yankees closed within a half-game of the American League lead with a 4-1 victory at Detroit, Friday night, while the Chicago White Sox spilled first place Baltimore, 5-2. Pittsburgh retained a six-game bulge in the National League, beating Chicago's Cubs, 4-3, on a two-run triple by sub shortstop Dick Schofield and one-pitch relief by Elroy Face.

Second-place St. Louis kept the Bucs from widening the gap by defeating Philadelphia, 4-1, in a game held to five innings by rain. Third place Milwaukee slipped seven games behind—with 19 to play—as Los Angeles rapped the Braves, 5-3.

Washington defeated Cleveland and nemesis Mudcat Grant, 8-2, with Jim Lemon driving in five runs on a pair of homers and Kansas City defeated Boston, 3-2, on a three-hitter by Bud Daley.

In the other NL action, San Francisco and Cincinnati split a twi-night doubleheader. The Giants won the opener, 3-2, on Willie McCovey's ninth-inning homer, and Willie Jones' single in the ninth gave the Reds the nightcap, 3-2, as Bob Purkey won his 17th game with a three-hit performance.

The third place White Sox, 3½ games behind, defeated Oriole ace Chuck Estrada (16-9) when Minnie Minoso lined a bases-loaded single for two runs in the first inning, and Al Smith and Ted Kluszewski then hit consecutive doubles for the deciding run in the second inning. Southpaw Frank Baumann saved the decision for Bob Shaw (13-12), who had a three-hit shutout for seven innings, then left after Jackie Brandt's two-run single in the eighth.

Consecutive home runs by Hector Lopez and Roger Maris in the third inning backed the six-hit pitching of rookie Bill Stafford (3-1) as the Yanks moved within one percentage point of Baltimore. Stafford, who singled home the first run off loser Bob Bruce (3-6), lost his shutout on a leadoff homer by Norm Cash in the eighth. Maris' home run was No. 37, giving him a share of the AL lead with Lemon.

Face saved the game for the Pirates and Wilmer Mizell (11-7) by retiring Ron Santo on a grounder for the final out with the tying run on base. The Cubs chased Mizell when Nelson Mathews hit a pinch single, Richie Ashburn doubled and Don Zimmer singled them home—all with two out. The Pirates scored two unearned runs in the second and then beat Dick Ellsworth (6-12) with two in the sixth when Schofield, playing for the injured Dick Groat, hit his first extra-base hit of the year.

Frank Howard drove in three runs with three hits, one a clinching two-run double in the sixth inning, as Los Angeles beat long-time Dodger killer Bob Buhl for the fifth time this season. Stan William (13-8) was the winner with Larry Sherry's relief help. Hank Aaron drove in all the Braves' runs, counting two with his 36th home run.

Three More Victories For Pulido

Belloin Pulido, Fairmount's leading jockey, had three winners last night to boost his total to 51, seven more than Ray Landing who scored one victory.

Belloin won with Aviation Love in the second race, for the three-year-old gelding's first victory in eight starts.

Aviation Love, coupled with the winner in the first, Epirus, paid a daily double of $29.40.

Aviation Love paid only $3.20 to win and Pulido's second winner, Rivington, in the seventh, was also an odds-on choice at $3.40. Followers of the Panamanian were well rewarded when Busy Gains ($16.80) won the eighth.

Denver Wins Opener

BOSTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Denver launched the American Football League on an upset note, beating Boston, 13-10, last night on a sensational 79 yard punt return by Gene Mingo. The gallop just inside the chalk stripe in the third period decided the AFL inaugural though it took the unexpectedly tough Denver defense to preserve it.

alist China and Italy voted against the Soviet move.

Wadsworth's View.

James J. Wadsworth, who has replaced Henry Cabot Lodge as chief American delegate, expressed doubt "that there was in the mind of the authors of this resolution any serious idea that it could be accepted by the council . . . not only is there the question of convenience, of cost, of the fact that the General Assembly is only 11 days away, but also the entire process by which we attempt to do our work in a quick and reasonable time."

A decision to adjourn the Security Council meeting until it could be moved to The Congo, Wadsworth said, "would be casting serious doubt on the course of the conduct of the United Nations operations in The Congo up until now. As far as my delegation is concerned, we consider that the secretary general and his very able representatives in The Congo have been doing exactly what the Security Council has asked them to do."

Yugoslav Accusations.

Dobrivoje Vidic, of Yugoslavia, had requested the council meeting, along with Hammarskjold. The Yugoslav memorandum making that request contained some sharp criticisms of the U.N. operation, accusing it of failing to eliminate Belgian interference, especially in the Katanga, and of having violated Congolese sovereignty.

Much of Hammarskjold's statement was devoted to a defense of the U.N. take-over of Congolese radio operations and airports.

Hammarskjold said the attempted firing of Lumumba by President Kasavubu—and the reciprocal attempt by Lumumba to fire Kasavubu—left a state of confusion which might have led to severe civil disorders. In the constitutional situation prevailing, he said, "there was nobody, really nobody" with whom U.N. officials could consult as representatives of The Congo government. These officials—presumably Hammarskjold's executive assistant, Andrew Cordier—thus "had to act on their own responsibility."

Took Over Airport.

They decided to take over the radio operations and the airport as temporary safeguards, Hammarskjold said. He said he was not consulted, "but I fully indorse the action taken . . . and I assume full personal responsibility for what has been done."

As a concession to neutralist opinion, however, he added that the question would be put to the Security Council "for its consideration and instruction."

Hammarskjold referred again to documents in which he had charged the Belgians with failing to meet their commitments to withdraw troops on schedule. "As regards the authorities in Katanga," he admitted, "we have in important cases not been able to enforce the rules . . . specifically, I have emphatically protested against the import of arms . . . I deplore the continued use of foreign elements in the forces organized in Katanga."

Solutions Within Reach.

Hammarskjold had many criticisms of the attitude of The Congo government. "I am personally firmly convinced," he said, "that solution of (domestic problems in The Congo) are within reach if all the parties were fully to show responsibility, to subordinate themselves to the higher interests of the people, and to act within the limits of the constitution. For the world community to ask for such attitudes is not to ask for too much."

Without such an attitude, he said, The Congo faces chaos. Without U.N. help "the financial situation is one of bankrupt. . . . We face a nation with a budget with all the necessary outlays and nothing to cover them—and with few or no efforts made to cover them."

Hammarskjold said, for example, that among the troops sent by Lumumba to Kasai, some units have not received any pay for two months. "They have no food, with a result that they disobey orders and loot from the civilian population," he said.

Reason for Disarming.

Hammarskjold cited the situation in Kasai province to show the necessity for disarming Congolese soldiers. The murder of 70 members of the Balubas tribe, "including women and children" on Aug. 31, he characterized as "the crime of genocide."

Declaring the troops there had "ceased to be parts of a responsible army," he asked:

"Should it be supposed that the duty of the United Nations to observe strict neutrality in the domestic conflicts and to assist the central government means that the United Nations cannot take action in such cases?"

Vidic, the Yugoslav delegate, conceded that the U.N., on the whole, "played a positive role" in The Congo. He urged that ways be found to stop all outside interference and that closer relations be established between the U.N. and the central government of The Congo.

Trumans To See Margaret Act.

PARAMUS, N. J., Sept. 10 (UPI) — Former President Truman and his wife will visit the North Jersey Playhouse tonight to watch their daughter, Margaret, play the leading role in "Goodby My Fancy." The play, which opened Monday at the theater in Bergen Mall, closes after tonight's performance.

Hurricane

southward from Miami and northward from Key West to the battered central islands of the chain of keys which curves southward from the mainland.

Doctors, medical supplies, field kitchens and food were on the way. The Navy planned to dispatch five helicopters to the scene as soon as the winds slacken.

Meanwhile the Coast Guard raced against time to remove more than 100 persons who wanted to flee from Sanibel and Captiva islands off the coast of southwest Florida.

Two helicopters from the St. Petersburg Coast Guard station flew 80 persons to beaches near Fort Myers where school busses took them to shelters.

A sheriff's deputy said the remainder of about 305 persons had elected to stay on the islands and ride out the wind.

Other beach areas on the southwest coast were evacuated. At Fort Myers, shelters were opened at schools, city hall and the courthouse.

Wind-driven sand was piled along Miami Beach streets. The winds whined through storm shutters and tossing palm fronds. The inky Miami night was filled with eerie flashes as power transformers popped on their high poles. In residential sections which had lost their power candles flickered here and there.

Many streets in Miami were running floorboard deep in water but bridges and causeways were comparatively dry. Wind gusts kept rain from settling on their exposed surfaces.

Most store owners had boarded up securely or criss-crossed their plate glass windows with tape. Many billboards and big signs had been taken down.

Waves as High as House.

All owners of waterfront homes had been urged to seek higher ground, but not all did. One woman who elected to ride out the storm at home said the waves at her door were as high as her house.

During its Atlantic sweep, the hurricane damaged several of island stations which track the missiles fired from Cape Canaveral. The present storm path includes the Cape itself.

Earlier, the storm did a million dollars in damage to the little island of St. Maarten and brought hard rain and wind to Cuba. However, the Cuban coast missed the worst of the blow as the hurricane veered northward.

A 104-foot Liberian freighter was caught by a gust of better than 70 miles an hour and tossed up on an island beach 20 miles southeast of Miami. All 11 aboard were safe but the skipper complained it was not very nautical to have a motel on his port side and trees on his starboard.

Miami Beach authorities barred all but residents and those with legitimate business from visiting the area this morning. Water was two or three feet deep in some streets along the ocean and many pavements were littered with broken glass.

In Washington, the Red Cross announced it was sending a second group of 100 disaster workers to Florida. The Red Cross had sent about 100 disaster workers yesterday.

KOSAKA LEAVES FOR U.S.

TOKYO, Sept. 10 (AP)—Foreign Minister Zentaro Kosaka, firm advocate of keeping Japan aligned with the Western democracies, left today for Washington and the United Nations.

Kosaka will confer with United States Government leaders in Washington before attending the United Nations General Assembly opening in New York Sept. 20.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

The Board of Election Commissioners for the City of St. Louis hereby gives notice that the persons named below have been appointed to act as Judges and Clerks in the various precincts enumerated, at all elections to be held in the City of St. Louis for a term ending sixty days prior to the Presidential Election, 1964. The qualifications of such persons to act in such capacity shall be as follows: They must be citizens of the United States and entitled to vote in the City of St. Louis at the next General Election; they must be men, or women, of good repute and character, who can speak, read and write the English language, and be skilled in the four fundamental rules of arithmetic; and they must be of good understanding and capable, and belong to the political party from which they are selected. They must either reside, or be employed, or have a place of business in the ward for which they are selected to act; and they must not hold any office or employment under the United States, State of Missouri, or under the City in which such election is to be held, and they must not be a candidate for any office at the next ensuing election. No person shall be appointed to serve as Judge or Clerk who has been convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, or who has been confined in any city or county jail, workhouse, penitentiary or house of correction within five years prior to such appointment.

All persons are hereby requested to notify the Election Commissioners as to the lack of any of these qualifications on the part of any Judge or Clerk mentioned.

The Board of Election Commissioners will sit at its office, 208 South Twelfth Boulevard, solely for the purpose of examining into any objections made against any Judge or Clerk, on the 15th day of September, 1960, from 9:00 o'clock a. m. to 12:00 o'clock noon, and from 2:00 o'clock p. m. to 6:00 o'clock p. m., and if all objections are not disposed of on said day, it will sit from day to day, between the same hours until the same are all determined; and further that any person found disqualified upon such information will be removed and a duly qualified person appointed in his, or her, stead. Within twenty days after the last of said sessions, the Board will cause all the Judges and Clerks appointed, who have not been removed or excused from service for good cause, to be commissioned.

SCHOOLS AND INSTRUCTION 75

EARN $10,000 A YEAR

Bill Bailey

The average starting salary of students, completing our FCC License, Electronics Technician Course, and those completing our Diesel Automotive Training, is $4300 per year.

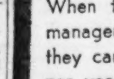

After becoming familiar with the industry their salary will increase to $6000 to $7000 per year.

After they become senior technicians, or master mechanics, they can earn $8000 to $10,000 per year.

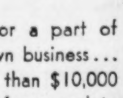

When they become specialists, or a part of management . . . or start their own business . . . they can earn considerably more than $10,000 per year. Write, phone or visit for complete information. PRospect 6-7860.

More Mild Weather Ahead

—Associated Press Wirephoto
Low temperatures and areas of precipitation expected tonight.

Mild late summer weather is expected to continue in the St. Louis area through Monday with relatively little change in temperature, the Weather Bureau said.

The cool air that broke the heat wave yesterday covered Missouri and Illinois today. Highest temperature in Missouri yesterday was 85 degrees at West Plains and Cape Girardeau. In Illinois, the top reading was 80 at Cairo.

Temperatures this morning in Missouri and Illinois dropped to the 50s in northern sections and to the 60s in southern sections.

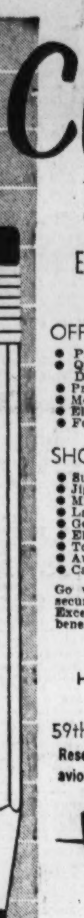

Attention of most of the country was centered on Florida and the Keys, where hurricane warnings have been posted. The warnings extended this morning on the east Florida coast to Daytona Beach and on the Gulf coast to Cedar Key.

Over the rest of the nation, scattered showers and thundershowers fell in the 24-hour period ended early today in an arc from the northeast through the southeast and Ohio valley into Texas and New Mexico. Heavy falls were reported in some sections.

Rain was forecast for tomorrow in the southeast and southern states and on the Washington and Oregon coast.

Cooling degree days in the St. Louis area yesterday, 11; the month, 158; the season, 2771.

Heralding Hurricane's Approach

Wind, tearing at row of tall palms, whips waters of Biscayne bay into a froth before tossing huge wave over retaining wall at Miami, Fla., yesterday. Mounting in intensity during the day, wind and rain lashed the Miami area and much of southern Florida with unexpected fury last night as Hurricane Donna changed course slightly and churned across the Florida keys, closer to the mainland than had been forecast earlier.

Searching U.S. Consul in Congo

Congolese soldiers search Frank Calucci, United States Consul in Leopoldville, before permitting him to enter Parliament building Wednesday. Search for weapons was rigorous as members of The Congo Assembly and Senate met in the tension generated by attempts of Premier Lumumba and President Kasavubu to oust each other.

Coney Island Checkup

Walrus named Ookie casts impassive glance on strange surroundings after being transferred to a new pool at the New York Aquarium at Coney Island. She was captured in Alaska, is about a year and a half old and weighs about 450 pounds.

Closing in on a Title

Moving closer to the final round of the Miss America pageant at Atlantic City, N.J., winners of preliminary competitions pose with trophies awarded after their victories last night. Miss Michigan, Nancy Anne Fleming, winner in the swim suit competition, was a two-time winner, having triumphed in talent competition earlier. Miss Indiana, Tommye Lou Glaze, won last night's talent contest.

Downed in Desert

Downed airline passengers plod into the Egyptian desert after crash landing of their plane about 25 miles from Assiout last weekend. The plane was en route from Cairo to Johannesburg with 66 passengers when fire forced it down in the treeless wasteland. There were no injuries.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

Uncle Ray's Column — Halley's Comet

By Ramon Coffman

AMONG ALL COMETS, the one named after Edmund Halley is most popular. Mr. Leo O'Donnell, who tells me he is 65 years old, is among the readers with questions about this comet.

"We all know that Halley's Comet comes around once in about 76 years, but I surely would like to know where it is in the meantime. Where is it right now? Does it ever stop traveling? How far does it travel on a complete journey? Just how many years does it take to return?"

It is now 50 years—half a centurny—since Halley's Comet was last a bright object in the sky. No doubt Mr. O'Donnell remembers seeing it during his boyhood.

Halley's Comet had a tail many millions of miles long while it was within a hundred million miles of the sun. It lost the tail after swinging around the sun and going beyond the orbit of the planet Mars.

Halley's Comet is still inside our solar system. It reached the orbit of Neptune after 19 years of outward traveling, then spent another 19 years going beyond the Neptune orbit to reach its farthest point from the sun.

The comet had slowed down a great deal by the time it passed the Neptune orbit, going at the rate of only two miles a second, then still more slowly.

Each complete trip of Halley's Comet takes, on the average, about 76 and a half years. The distance covered in a complete trip is about eight billion miles.

Twelve years ago, the famous comet turned back toward the sun. About seven more years will be needed for it to cut through the Neptune orbit on its return journey.

It is speeding up as it comes back, and will reach a speed of more than two hundred miles a second before it rounds the sun. By the time it reaches the orbit of Mars, it will move started growing a new tail,
